Apart from the Olympics - couldn't think of any for that.....

Part 1:

Ahhhhh, we're all going to die!!!!!!

Hello...HELLO!!!!....

....anybody?

...choooo!!!

EWWWWW!!! He Sneezed on me! Get it off, get if off!!!!
Oh, I think some went in my mouth....ewwwwww....

China has (bang) recently reported (bang) that they have had no (bang) new (bang) cases of the virus reported in the (bang) last few (bang) days.

Yes, tha' is correct (bang).

Can you tell (bang) us how you (bang) managed to do that (bang)....sorry, but what's that banging?

What banging?

Have you got any more bulle...err antivirus shots?

The government has recommended that, to help stem the spread of the corona virus, you should wash your hands thoroughly. We recommend washing for a minimum length of time. To give an example, if you sing Happy Birthday to yourself twice, that should be long enough.

What if it's not my birthday?

That doesn't matter....

Well maybe not to you....

My birthday was last week, does that mean I'm more likely to catch the virus now?

No! It's just an example. It doesn't have to be Happy Birthday. Any song will do,

What if I forget the words?

What?

Well, say I'm singing and I forget the words. Can I just hum instead?

Look, sing, hum, tap you're blasted feet! I don't care. If you can't sing just use your watch!

What if my watch is broken?

Right, sod this I'm off...

The Government has done some research and as it turns out, there is a legitimate reason for panic buying toilet paper! It seems it can help prevent the spread of the corona virus, if used as a suppository.

What! No, that can't be right. How?

Well, if you've got a bog role shoved up your bum, you're not going to be walking very far and as a result you're less likely to bump into someone that actually has the virus.

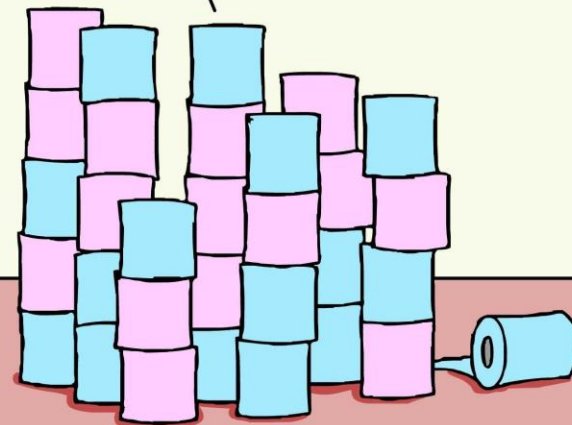

Yes, but what sort of idiot is going to do something like that?

Well, frankly, the kind that panic buys toilet paper in the first place...

Owwwww!

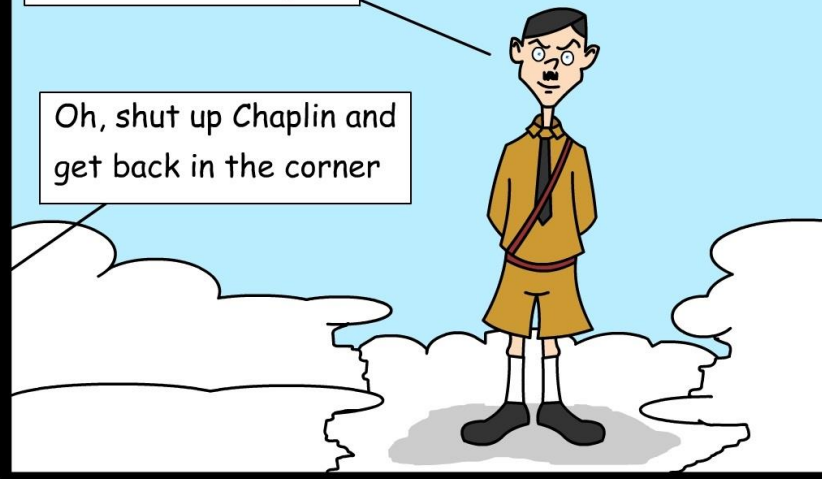

Public spaces closed.
Gatherings of friends banned, pubs and restaurants closed.
People virtual prisoners in their own homes.....

Not how I envisaged Britain after the war!

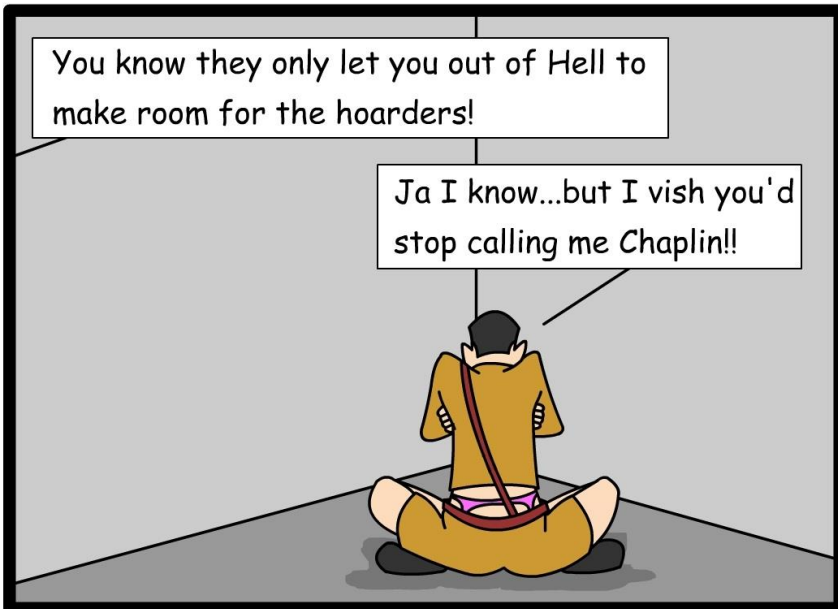

Nein, but it is how I envisaged it! Maybe not quite so extreme though...

Oh, shut up Chaplin and get back in the corner

You know they only let you out of Hell to make room for the hoarders!

Ja I know...but I wish you'd stop calling me Chaplin!!

In this time of crisis , it's important to remember those that are being hardest hit.

What, you mean like doctors and nurses?

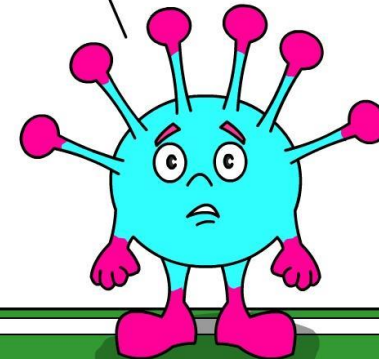

No, I mean premiership footballers. There's even talk of them having to take a pay cut as the season has been cancelled.

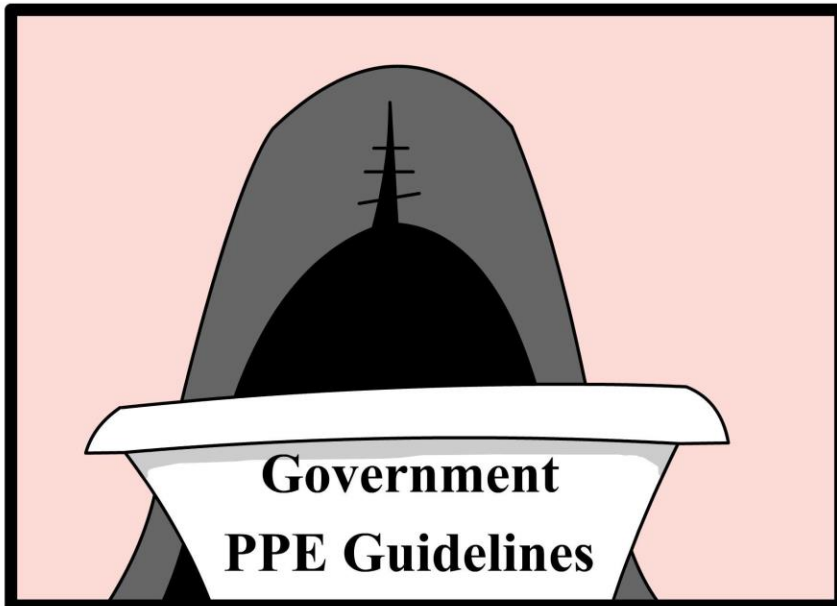

That's terrible!

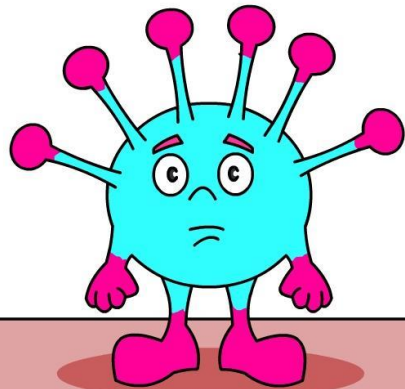

I know, some of them may even be forced to get by on 15 or maybe as little a 10 million for the year!

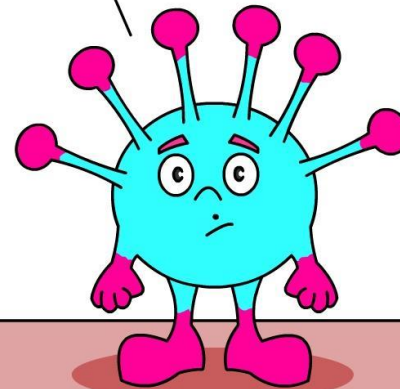

Poor babies!

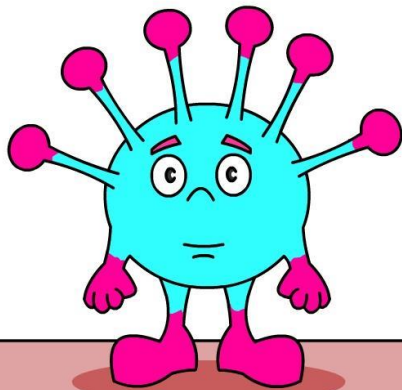

It's been reported that one of the symptoms of the Corona virus is that some of the people that have caught it have developed anosmia.

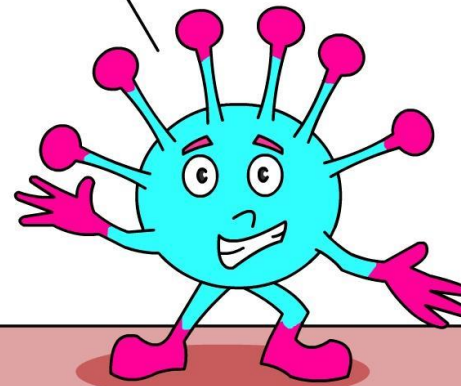

That's terrible! How do they smell?

Awful!

Boom, boom!

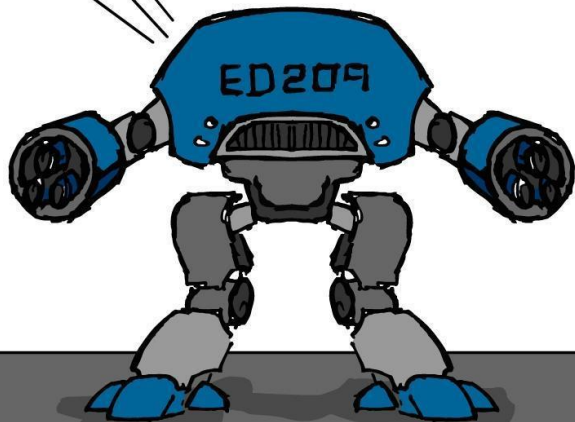

Some police forces have been accused of being heavy handed in following the guidelines laid down by the Government as a result of the current situation.

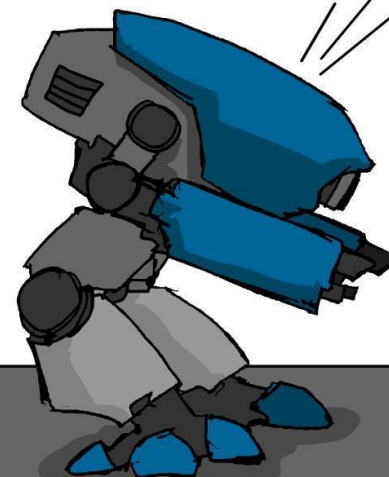

So, to give them an idea of the softer kind of approach we were looking for, we've brought in an advisor to help.

GO BACK INSIDE! YOU HAVE 10 SECONDS TO COMPLY! 10, 9, 8....

YOU HAVE 5 SECONDS TO COMPLY....

But I only came out for a pint of milk....

As a result of all the comparisons being made between the current situation and WW2, we've decided to bring back one of the morale boosting ideas from the war.

Hmmm, we'll need someone who doesn't have anything else to do to play the main part though. Oh, I know...

The new adventures of

as Jane

To help tackle the Corona virus we've introduced a new roving team of health professionals. They'll be all over the country so if you have any questions, just look out for their logo on the side of the van.....

Bring out You're Dead

So, Mr Markle, what do you think of the situation in Britain now? People locked in their homes, not being allowed to see family and friends, being told what they can and can't do...

Sounds a bit like Marital law!

Harry!

Sorry, I meant Martial law....

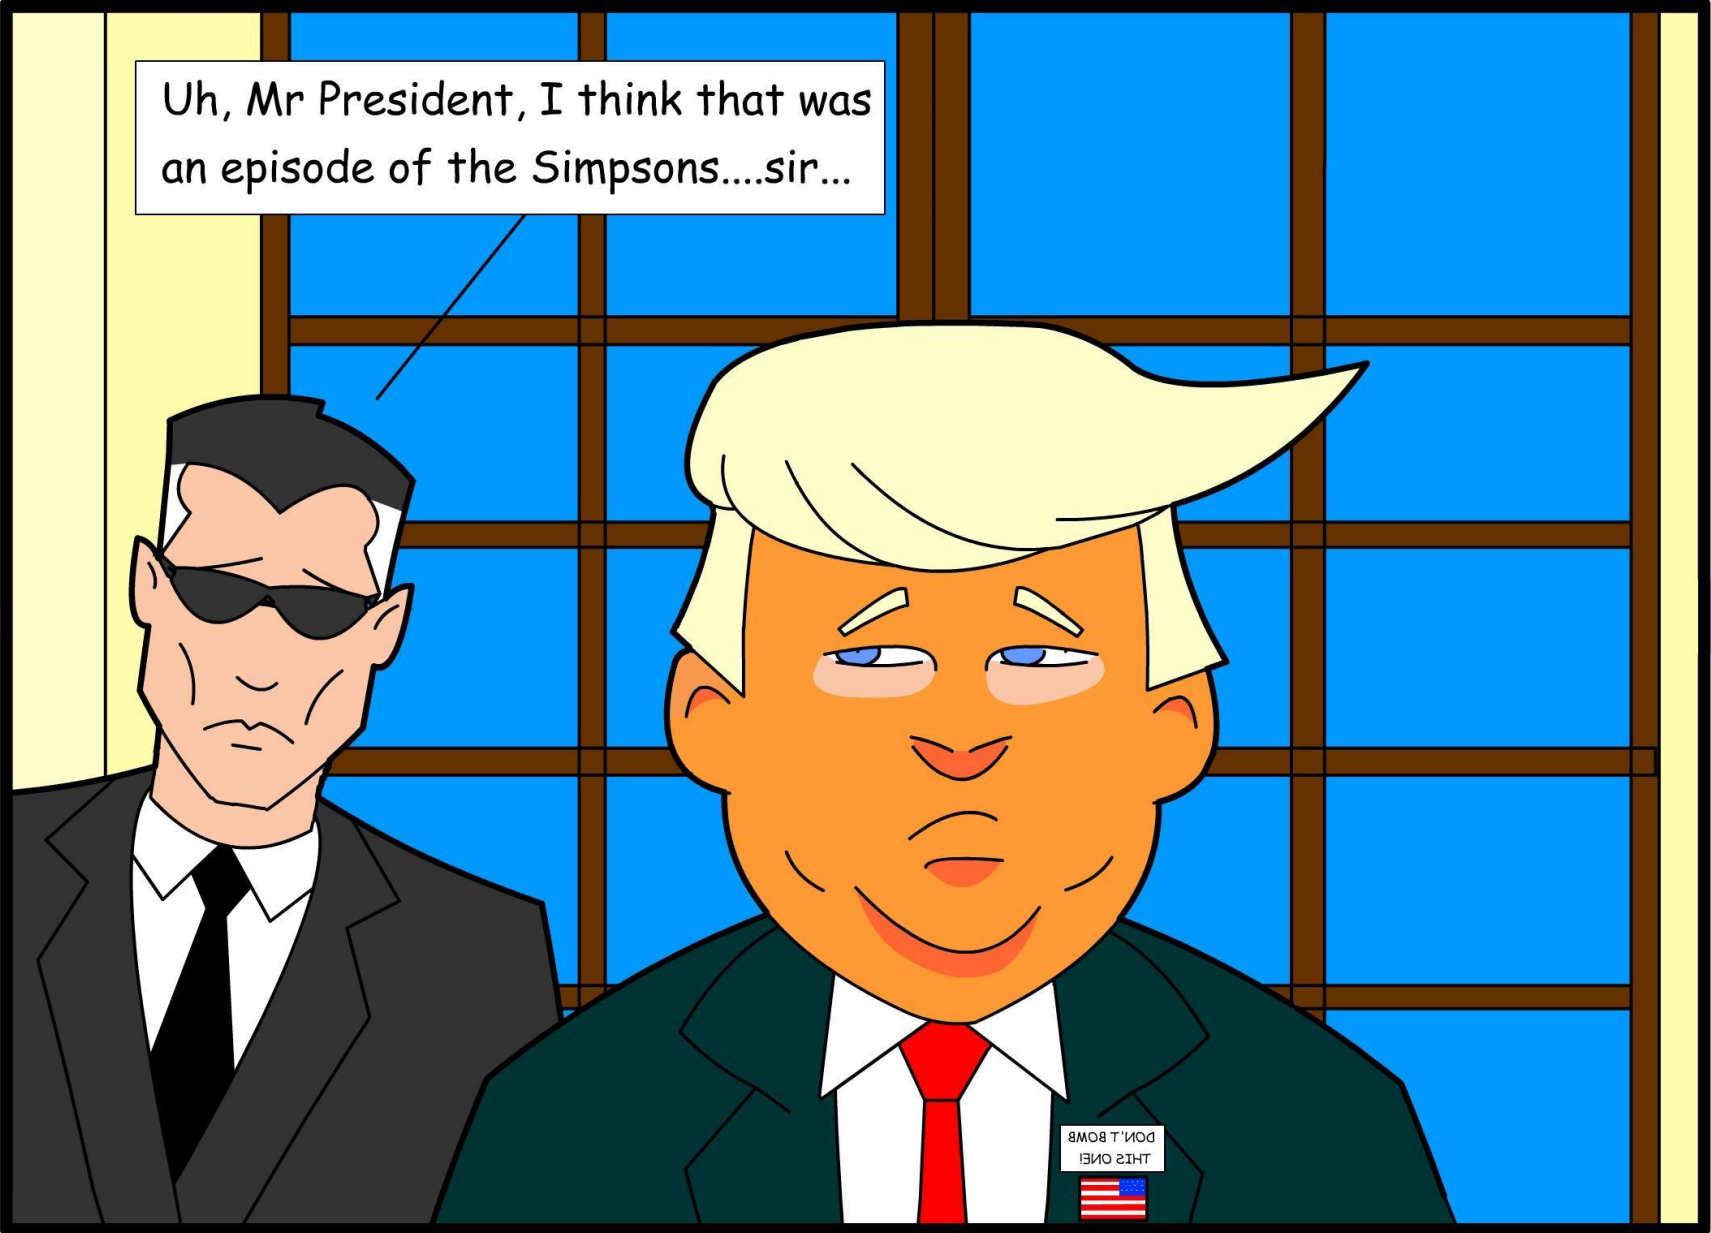

My fellow Americans. I am greatly disturbed. Last night I saw a docmunen...docnenem...decnome...TV show about the current virus. Seems it not only has similar symptoms as the flu, but it also turns the victims a bright shade of yellow!

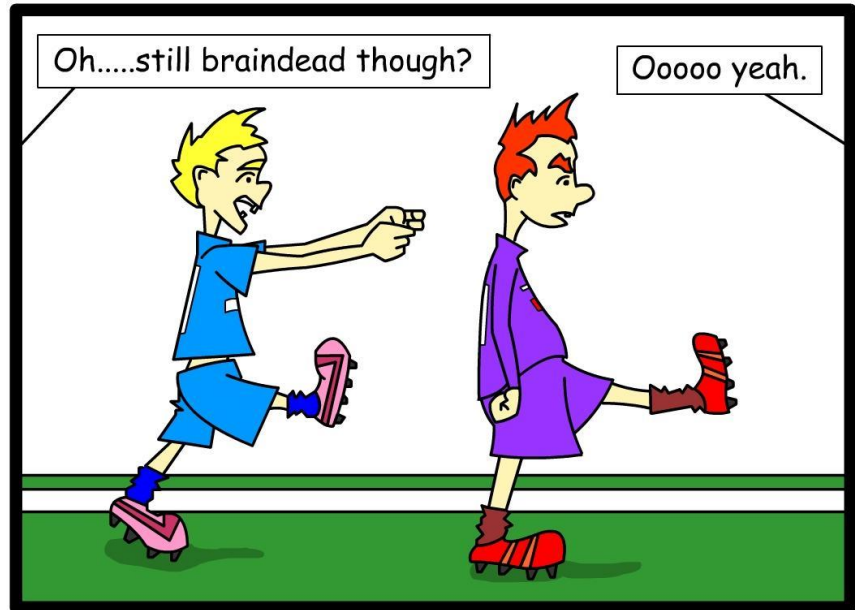

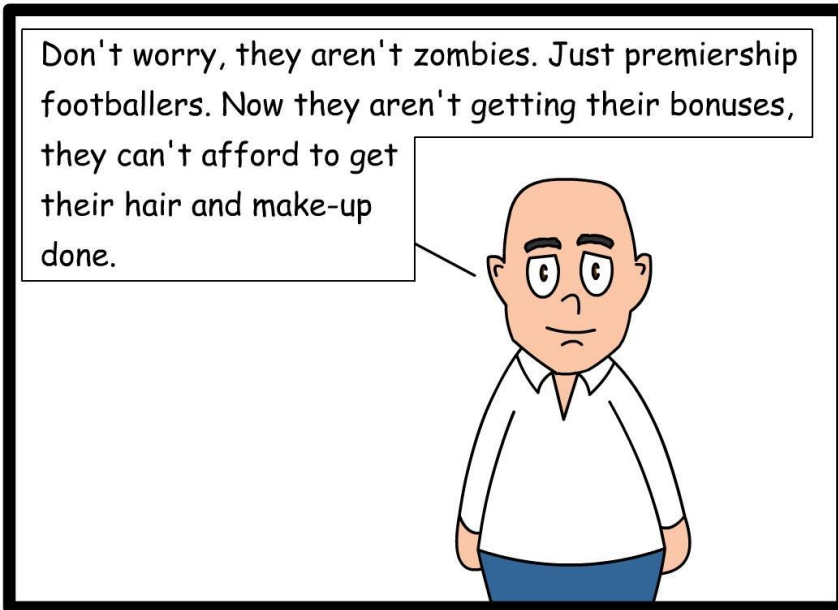

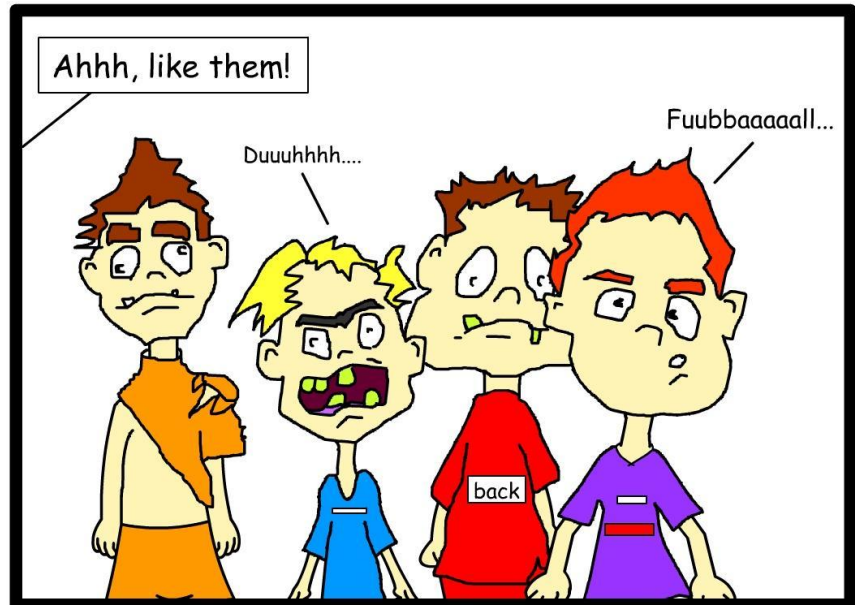

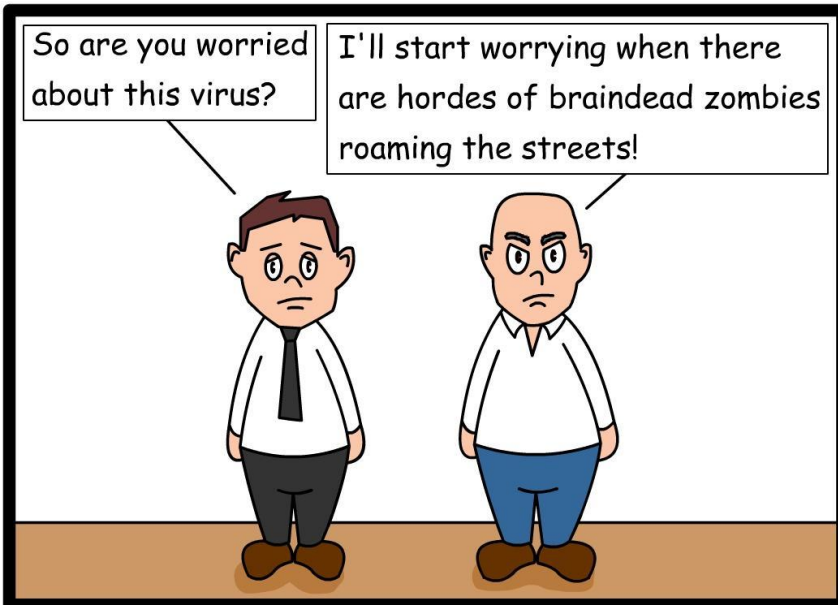

Those sneaky Japs send it over to this country hidden in boxes of thier cheap Japanese electronics.....

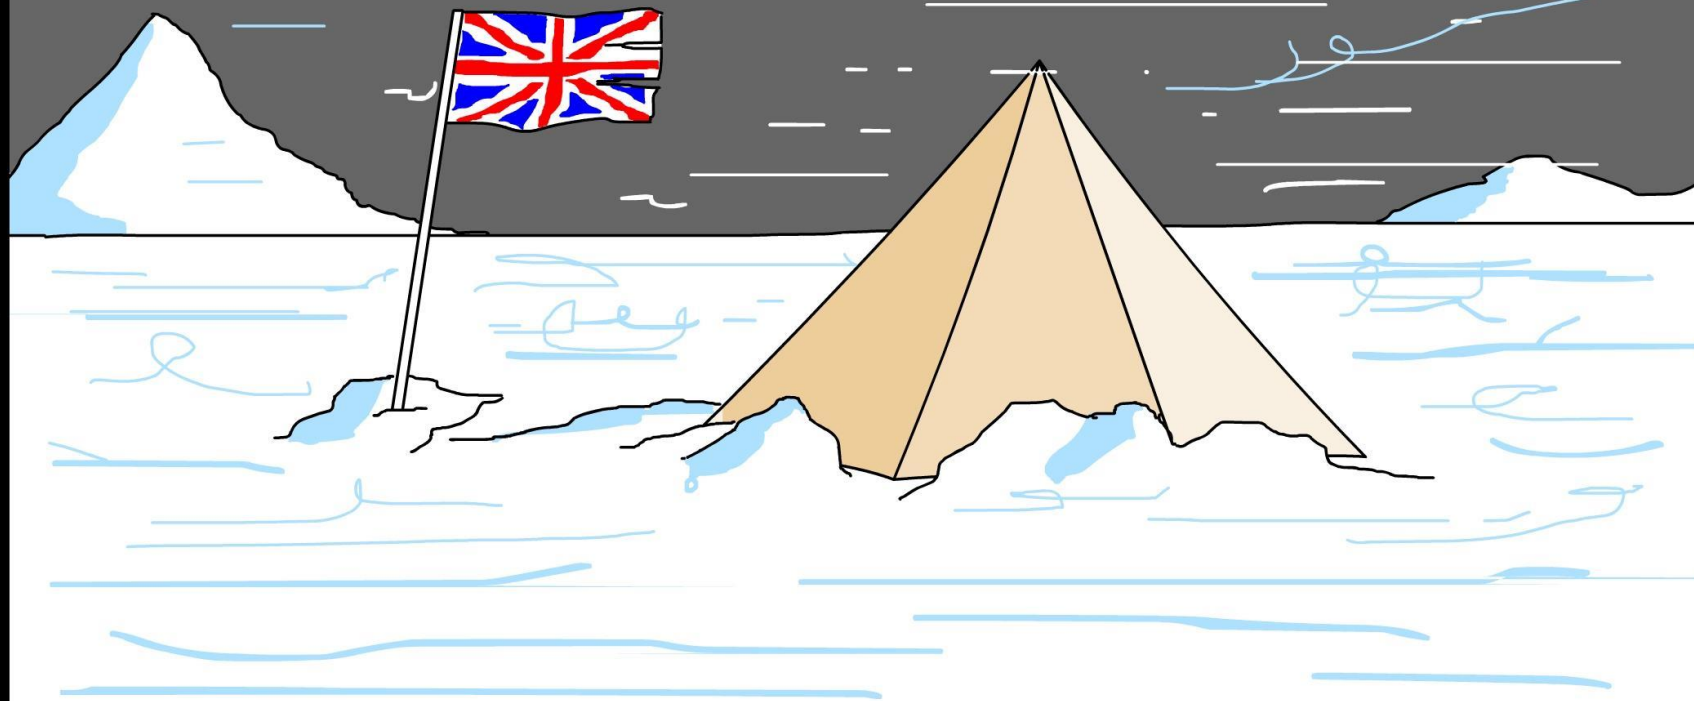

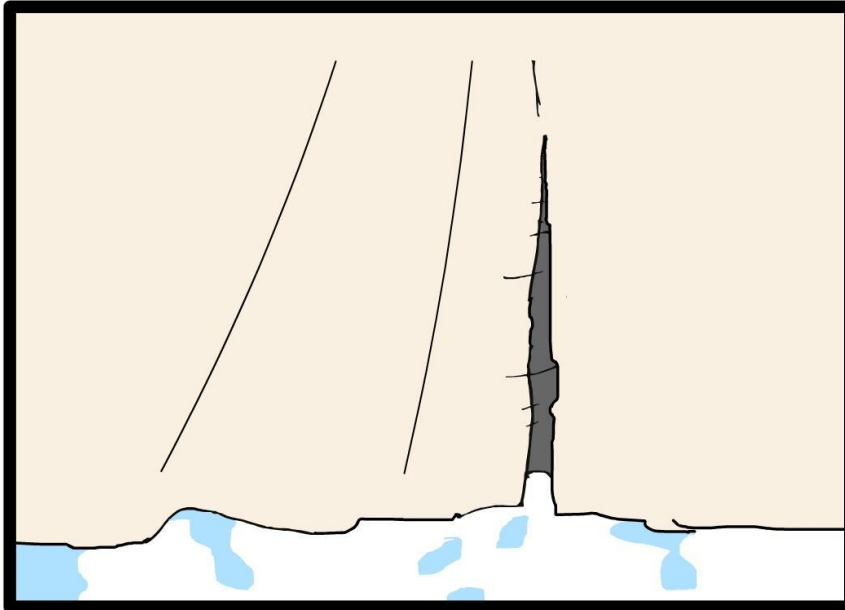

Uh, Mr President, I think that was an episode of the Simpsons....sir...

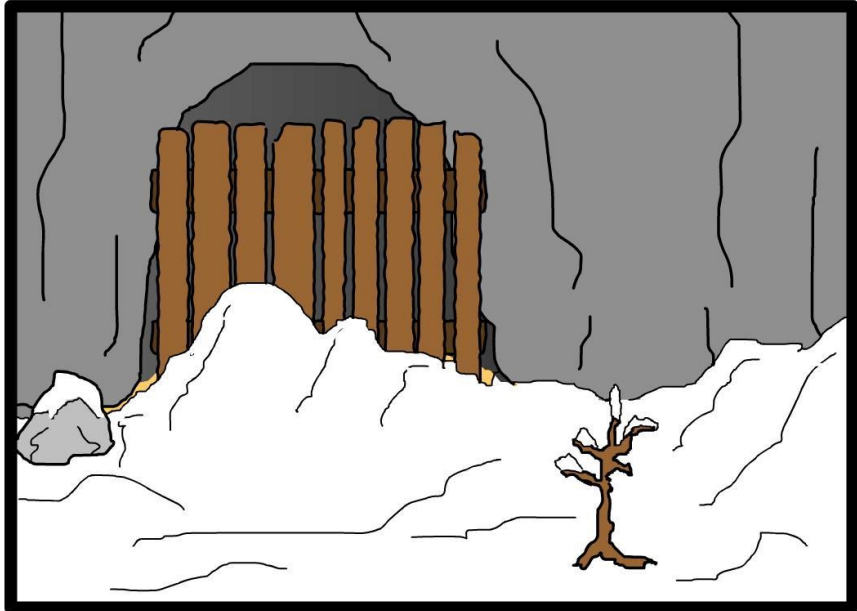

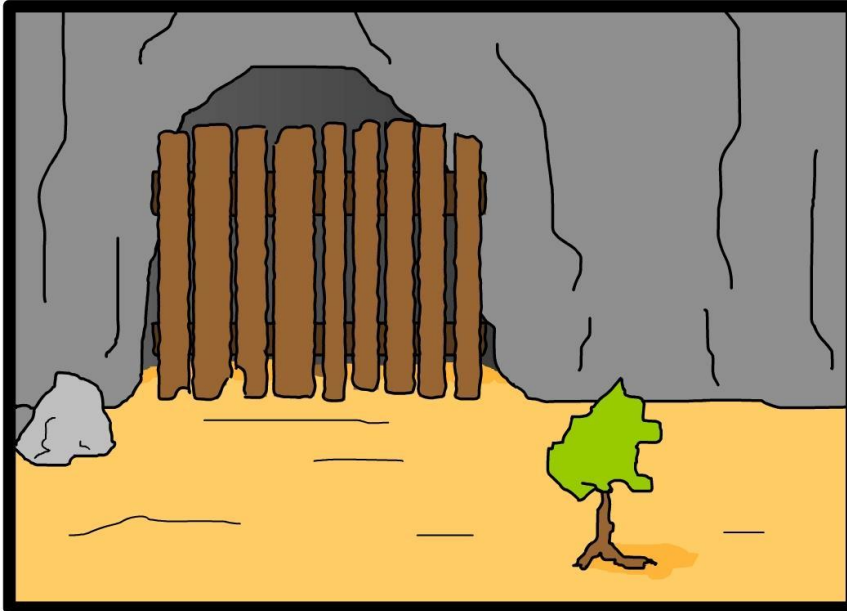

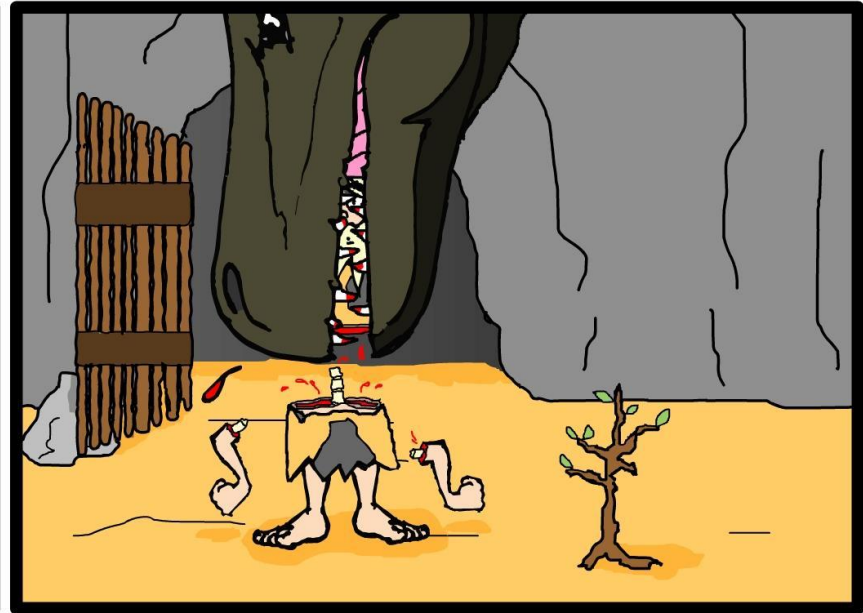

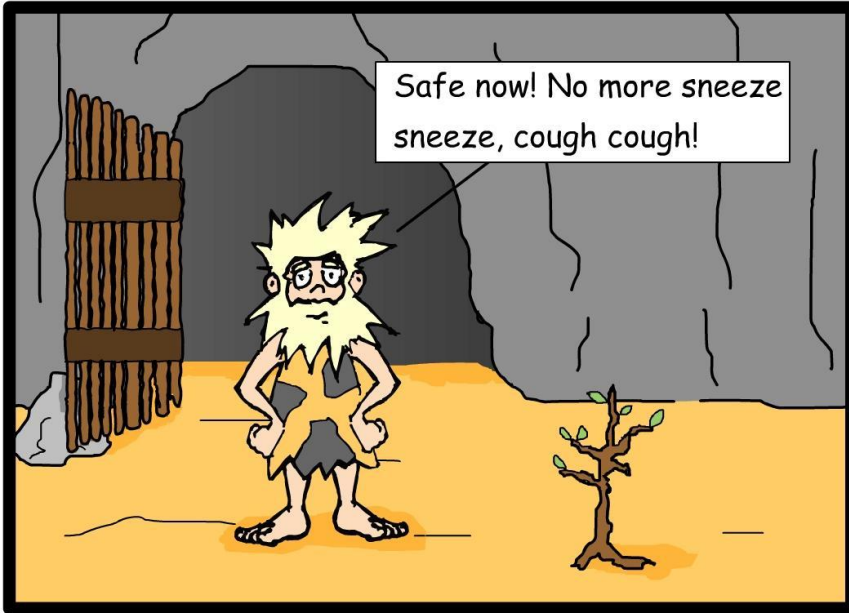

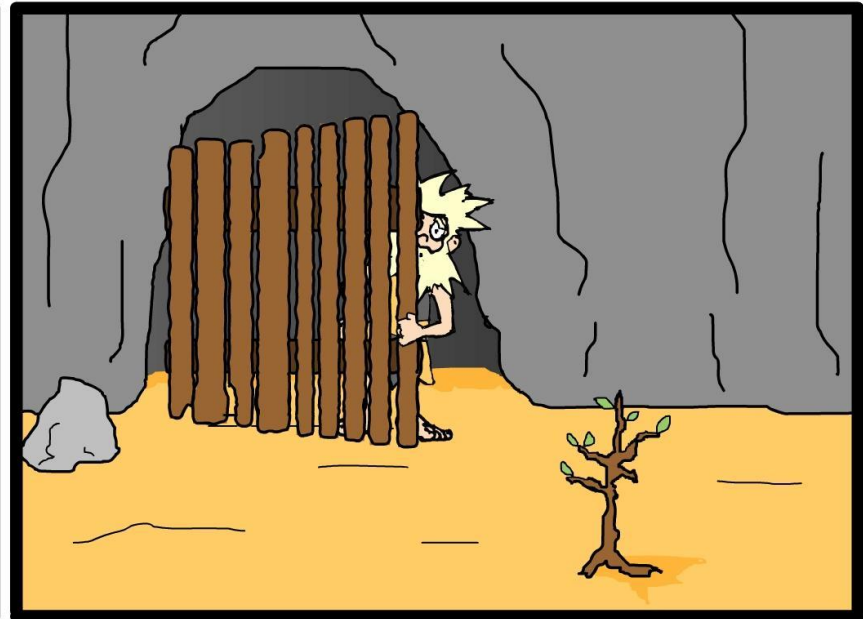

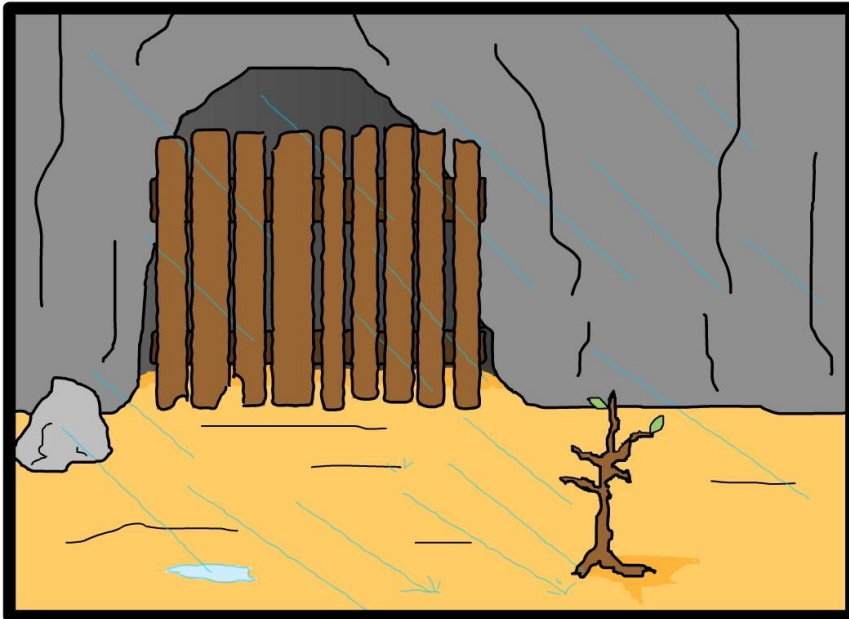

Antarctica, 1912

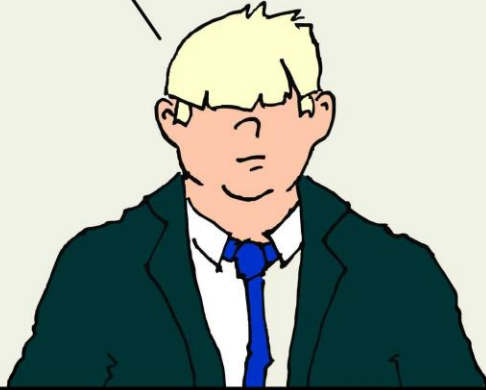

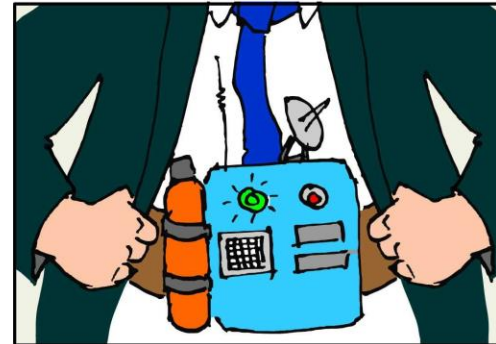

As people are having trouble understanding the new social distancing rules, the government has come up with a simple device to solve the problem.

And here it is. It's a simple concept, inspired by the automotive industry. When the device detects someone getting too close, it deploys counter measures to rectify the problem.

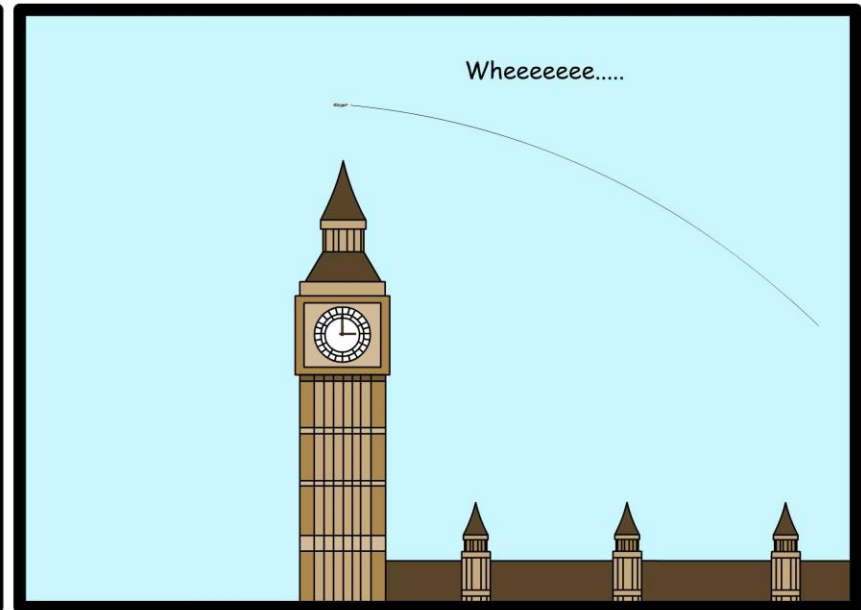

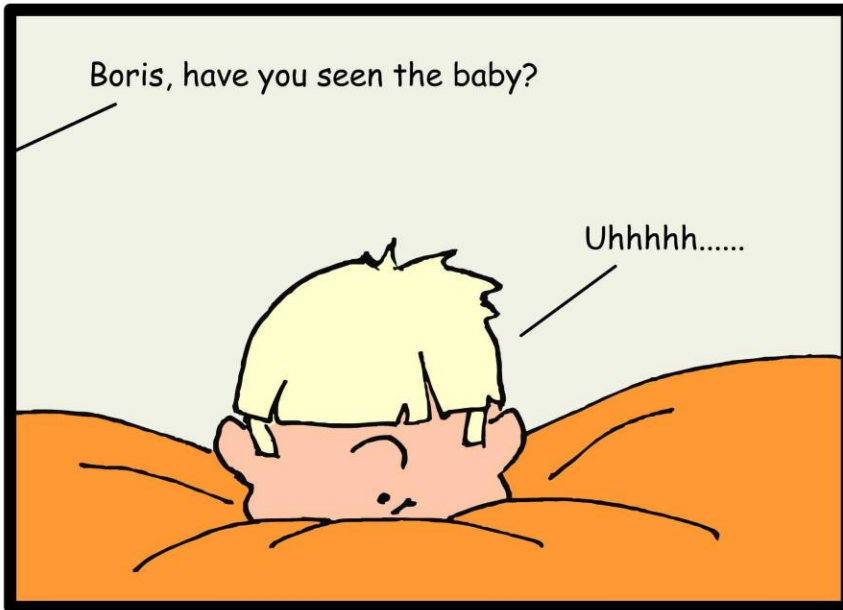

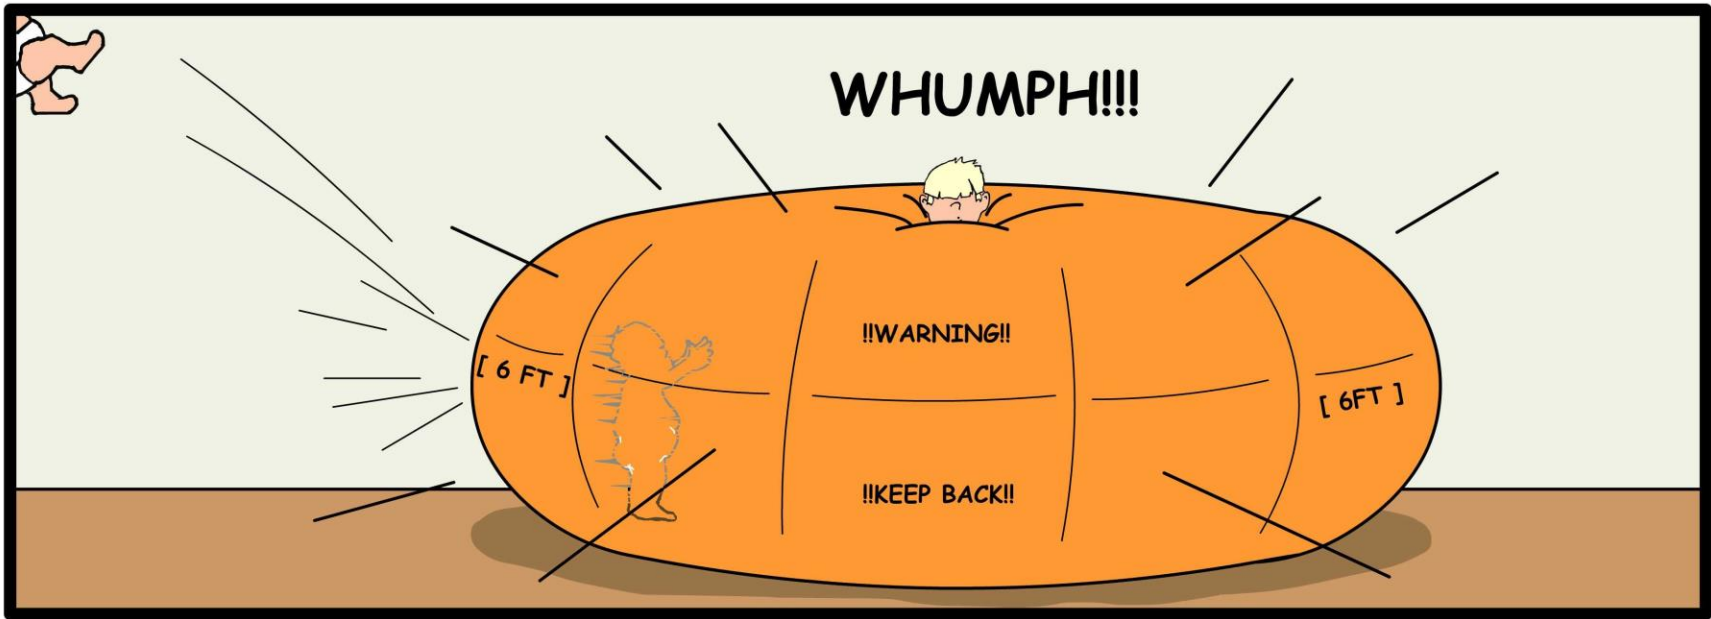

Da da...

Warning! Proximity alert detected.
Deploying air bag!

Due to the worries some people have that the new vaccine has been rushed into use, to prove it's safe, I've decided to take it myself first. Doctor.....

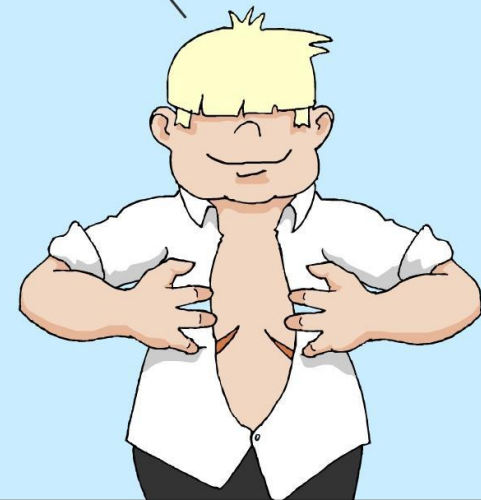

Huh....now there's something you don't see every day!

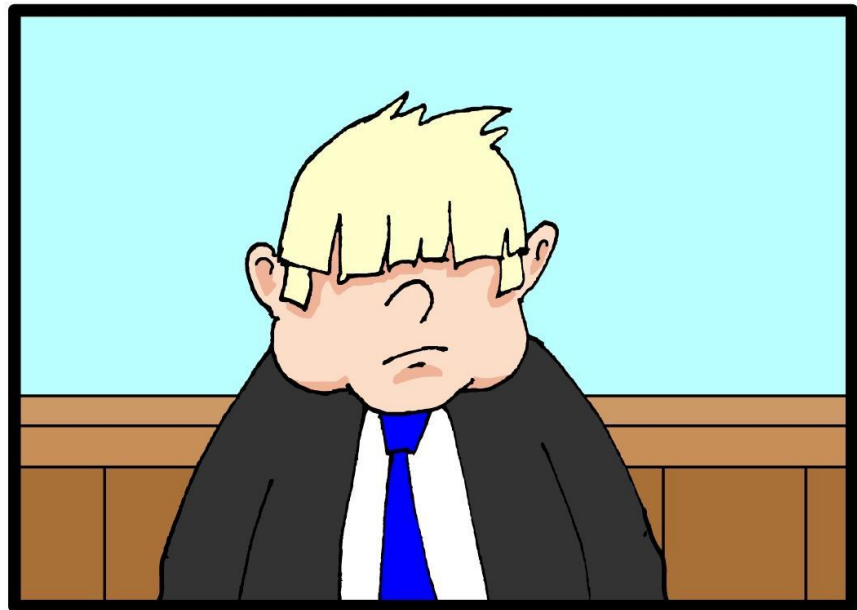

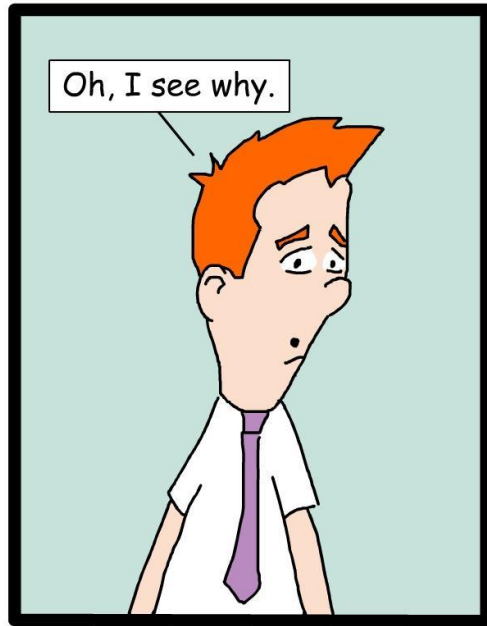

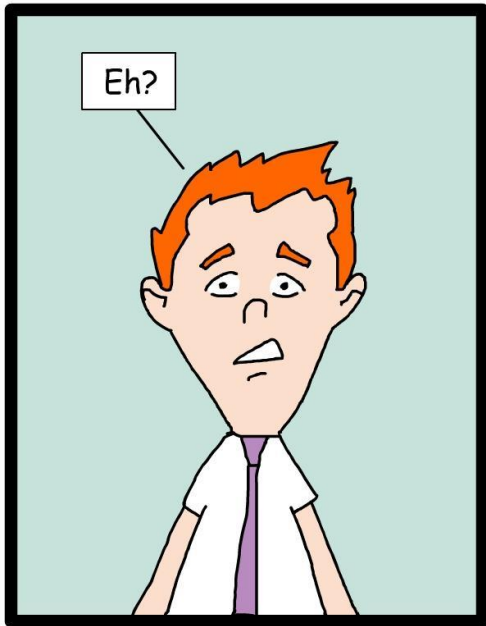

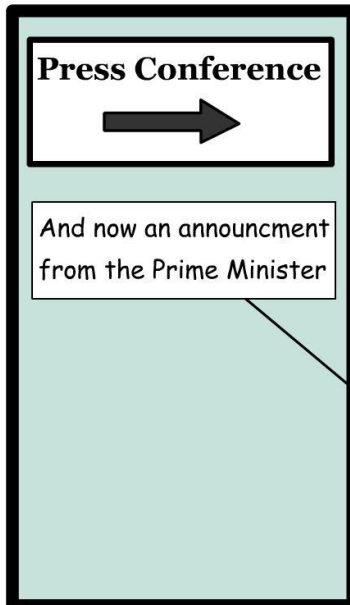

It's possible more tests may be needed before it's 100% safe.....

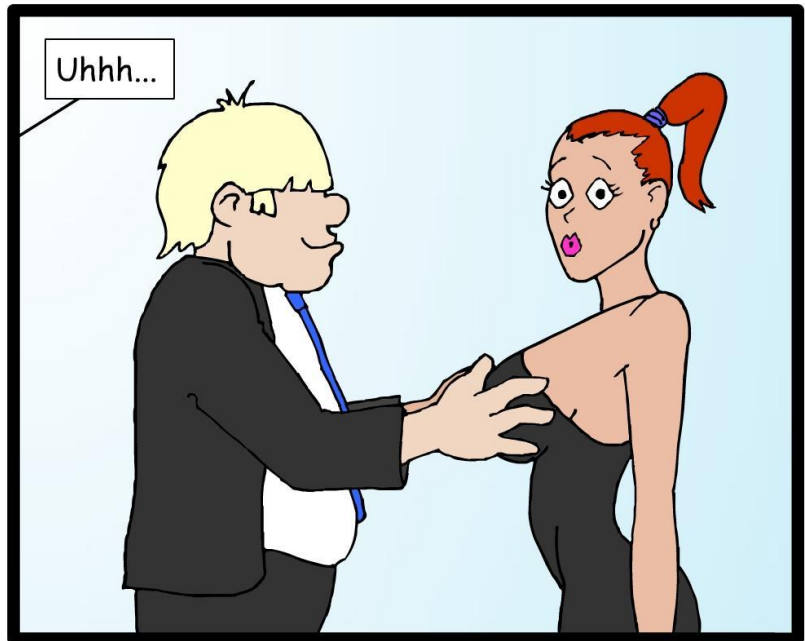

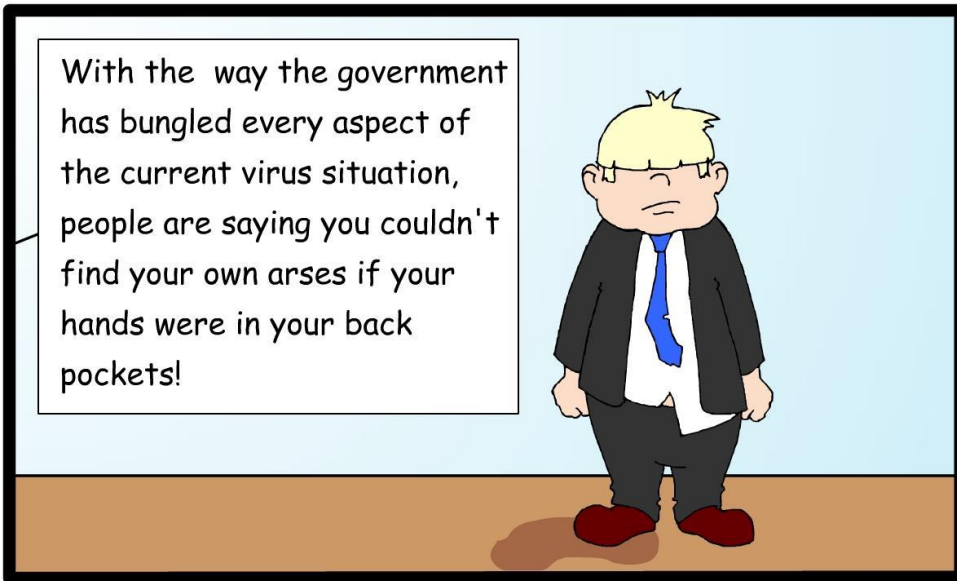

On the bright side though.....phwoarrn!!!!

Ladies and gentlemen, it's my pleasure to present...
Mr Bing Crosby!

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas....

Whumph...

....has been cancelled! Bwah ha ha ha ....

You know, sometimes I feel like King Canute, or Cnut in the original language, holding back the virus like a tide!

No, not Cnut.....close though.*

* This of course refers to Cnut's son, Harold Harefoot, who was also a bit of a tool....

I'm bored!!!

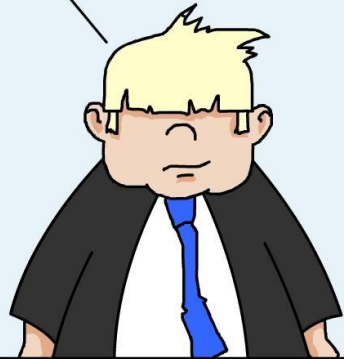

Don't worry, the lockdown is nearly over.

I know....

...can't wait!

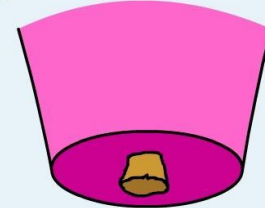

Finally, we're getting close to the end of the lockdown! Obviously we can't just go back to normal straight away so....

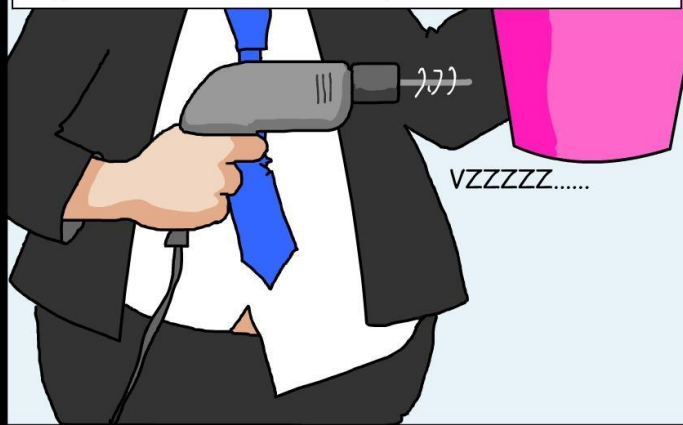

...to explain our exit strategy, I'm going to use this drill and a bucket of water.

As you can see, at the moment there is a cork in the bottom to stop the water or "virus" coming out. Now, obviously, if we just pull the cork, the virus will pour out again. Now this is the genius part!

If we take the drill and make just small holes in the bucket, if we've done our sums right, the water will stay in the buck....

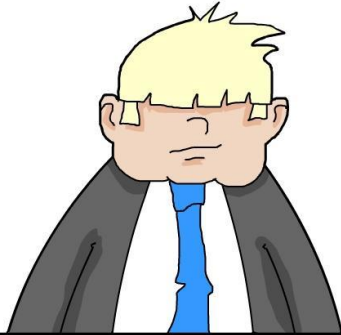

...Oh, bugger, that's not supposed to happen! Quick, someone get a towel. Maybe if I drill some more holes....

Uh, I wouldn't do that Prime Minister!

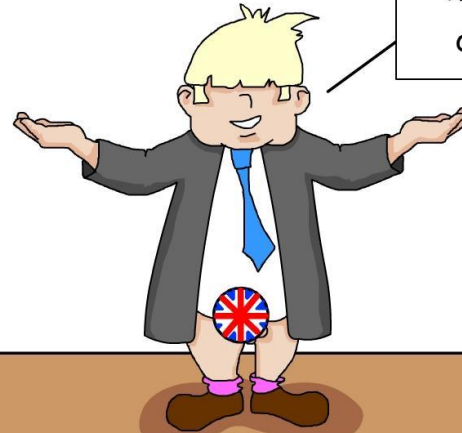

ZZZZZFFFTTTTTTTTZZZZZ
ZZZTTTTTTT.....

Some people are concerned that the vaccine is reported to be only 70% effective. Well, considering it's only been in development for a few months, 100% was unlikely, so 70% isn't bad!

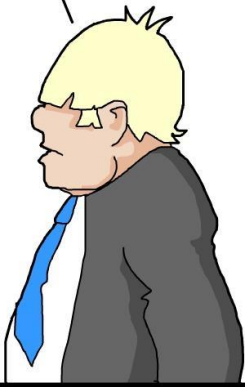

On an unrelated note, I've just had my new suit back from the tailors. Unfortunately, due the current restrictions, he had supply problems, so was only able to finish 70% of it, but under the circumstances, I think he did a cracking job!

Now if you'll excuse me I have to return to saving the country single handed!

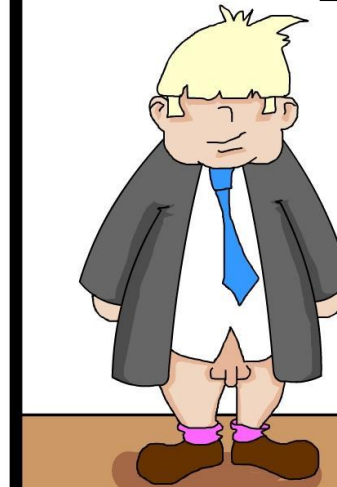

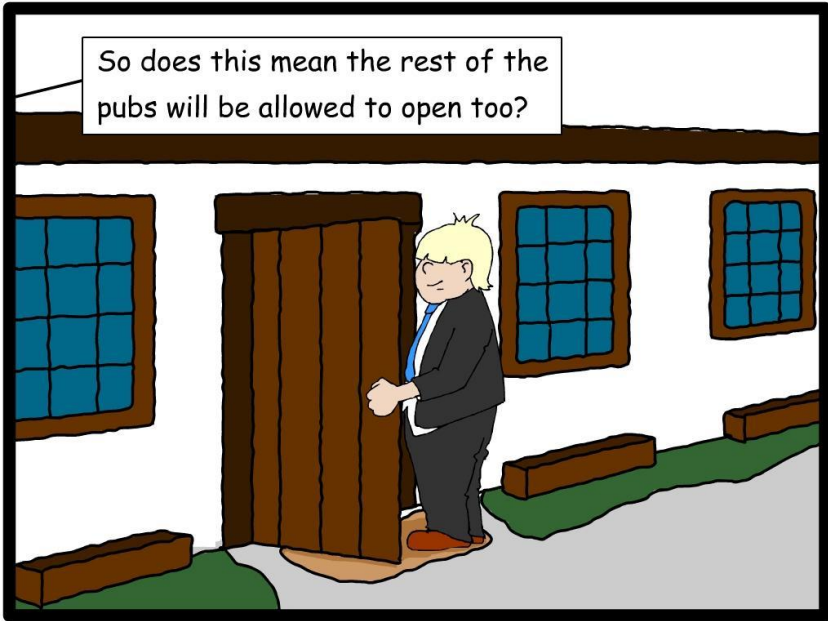

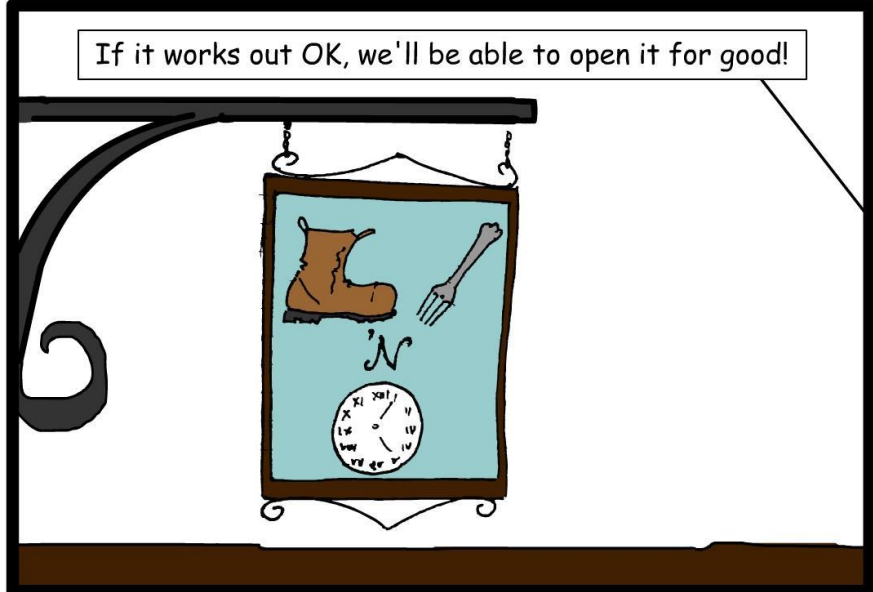

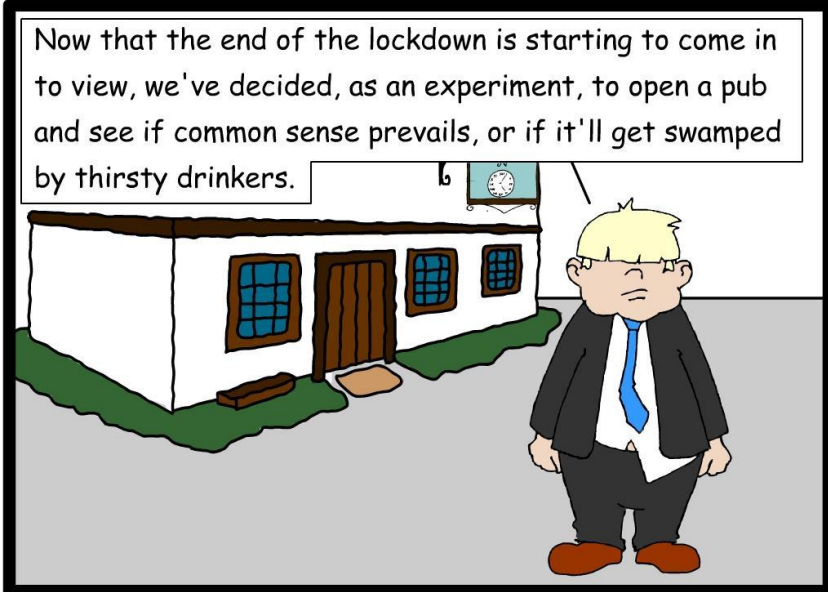

Uh, Prime Minister.....

Yes, what?

...oh, uh, nothing...

How are people supposed to decide whether they should take the vaccine or not when the effectiveness seems to change with every story printed!

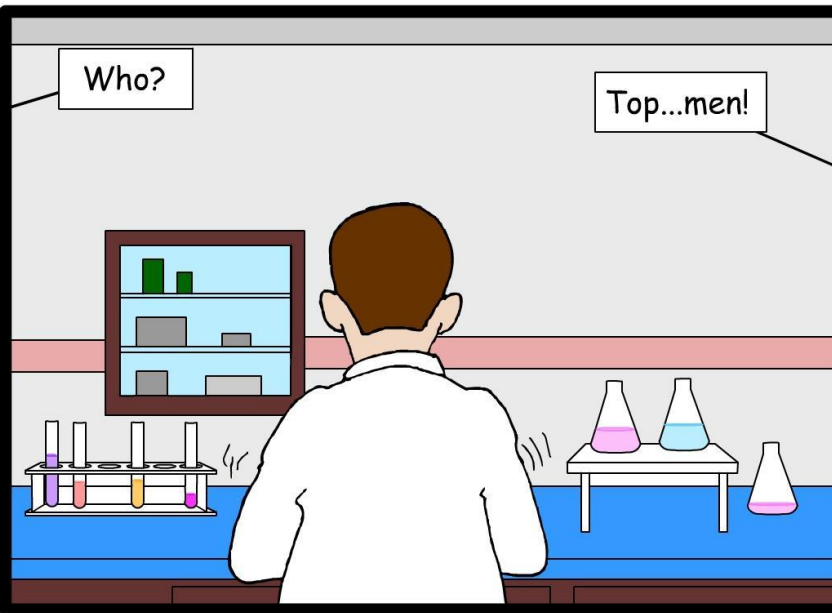

One minute its 85% effective, then 75, then 65, then back up to 90! It's as if the numbers are just conjured up out of thin air.

Nonsense! They are not conjured! It takes a lot of time and hard work to come up with those figures! Even now we have some of our top men working on it!

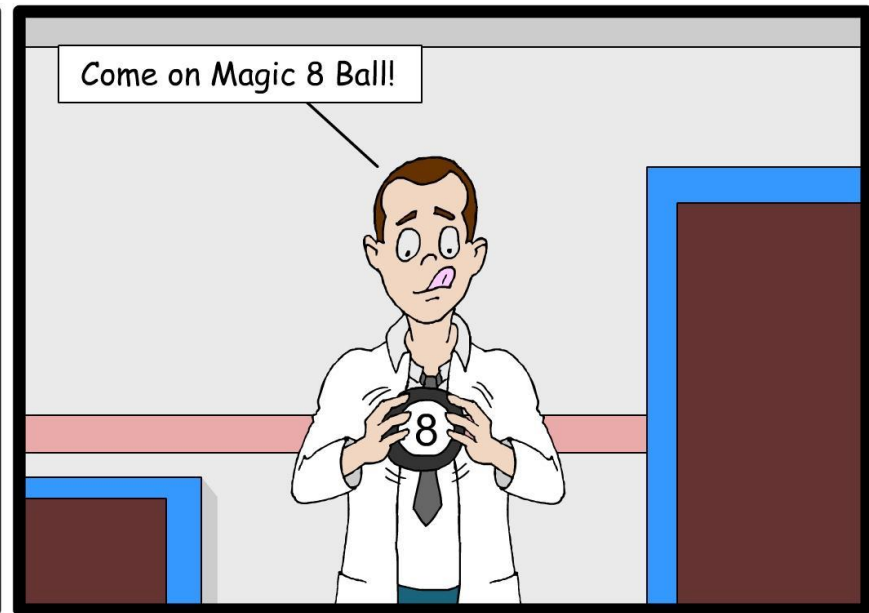

Who?

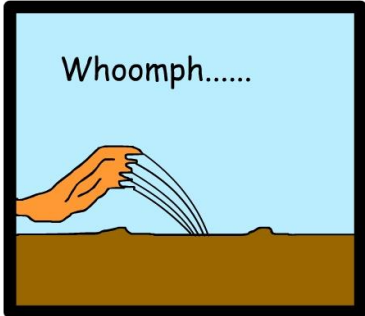

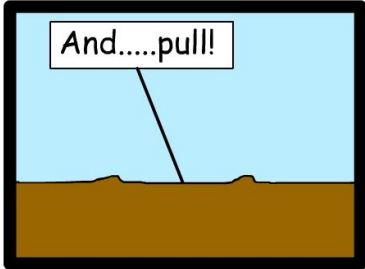

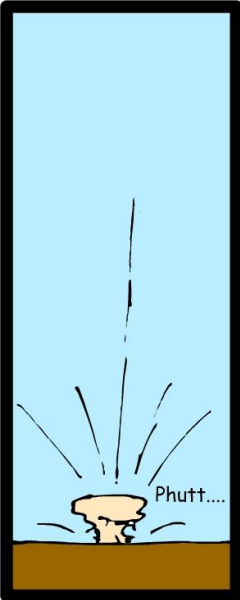

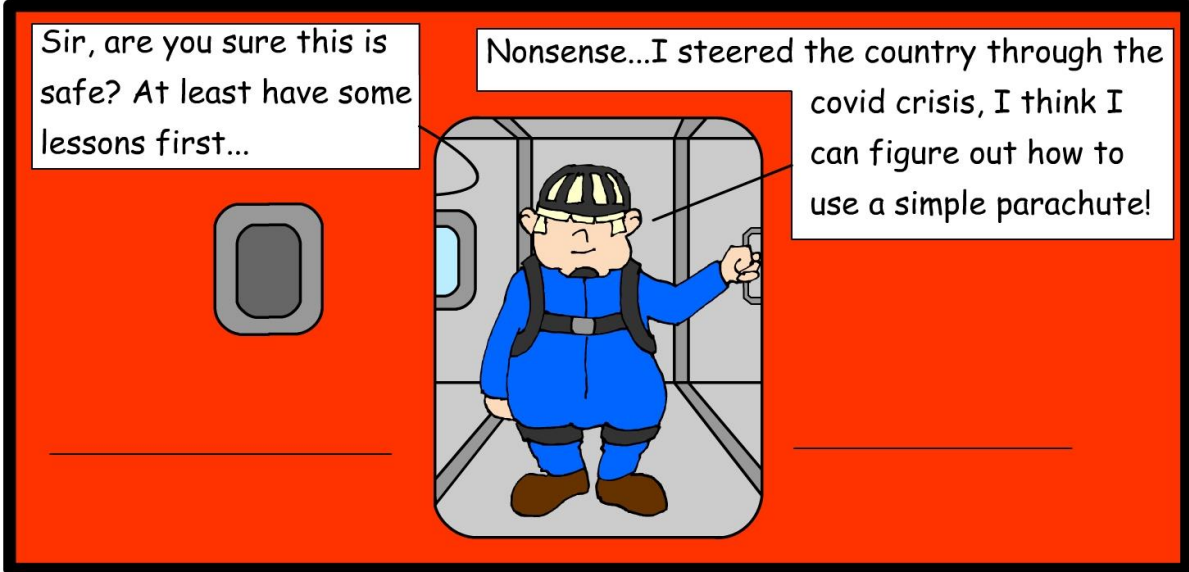

Top...men!

Come on Magic 8 Ball!

We interrupt this program for some breaking news...

BREAKING NEWS

We've just learned that the humans are finally coming out of lockdown! I say again...

Sorry, excuse me a moment....yes, yes, uh huh. And that's confirmed? OK

No, never mind. Someone just coughed so they're going back in...

...one giant leap for Mousekind!

Now that all international travel has been suspended, how are we supposed to celebrate the end of lockdown now? People were looking forward to their holiday in the sun!

They'll just have to make do with holidaying in Britain instead.

Well I suppose they could get pissed and act like wankers in Britain, but it just won't be the same....

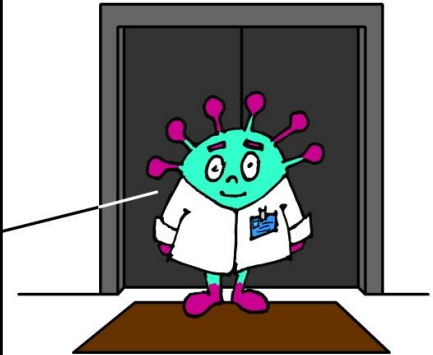

The WHO has just concluded an investigation into the possibility of the COVID 19 virus having come from the Wuhan Institute of Virology's labs. They have concluded that ex-president Trump's claim of "You denied it, you supplied it" is unfounded. A spokesman for the lab had this to say:

We feel totally justified in these findings! We've said all along that the virus samples are all securely kept locked up, so there is no way they could have been released accidentally!

Thank you...err, don't I know you from somewhere?

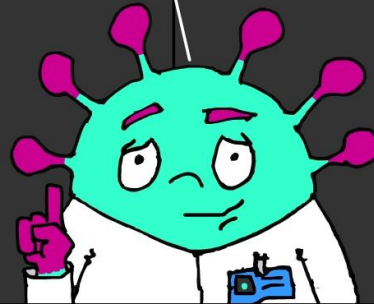

Noooo...I don't think so. Oh I know what it must be, we all look the same over here....

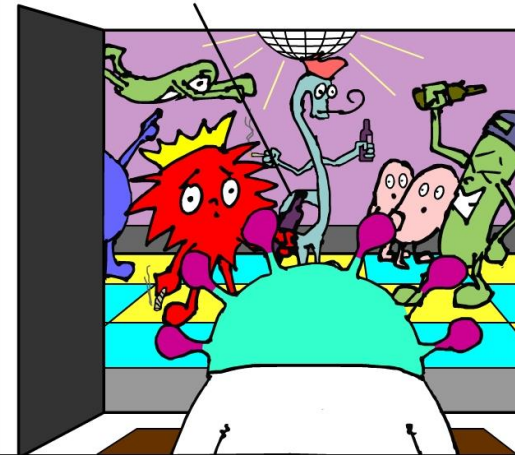

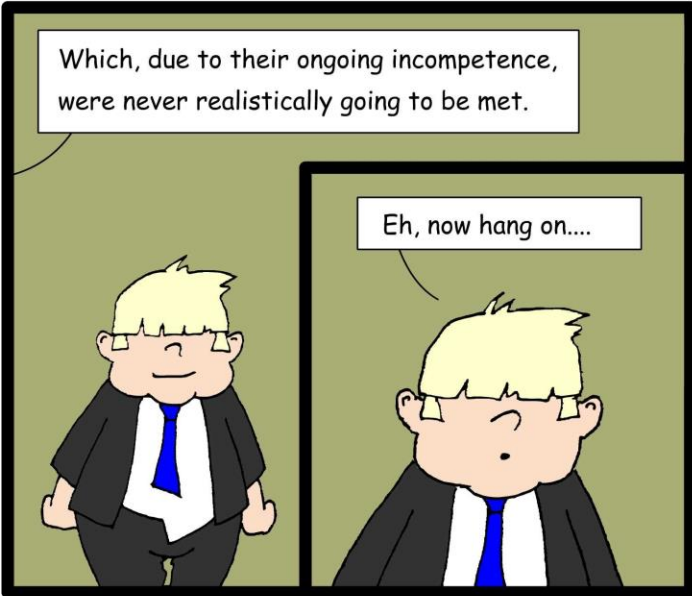

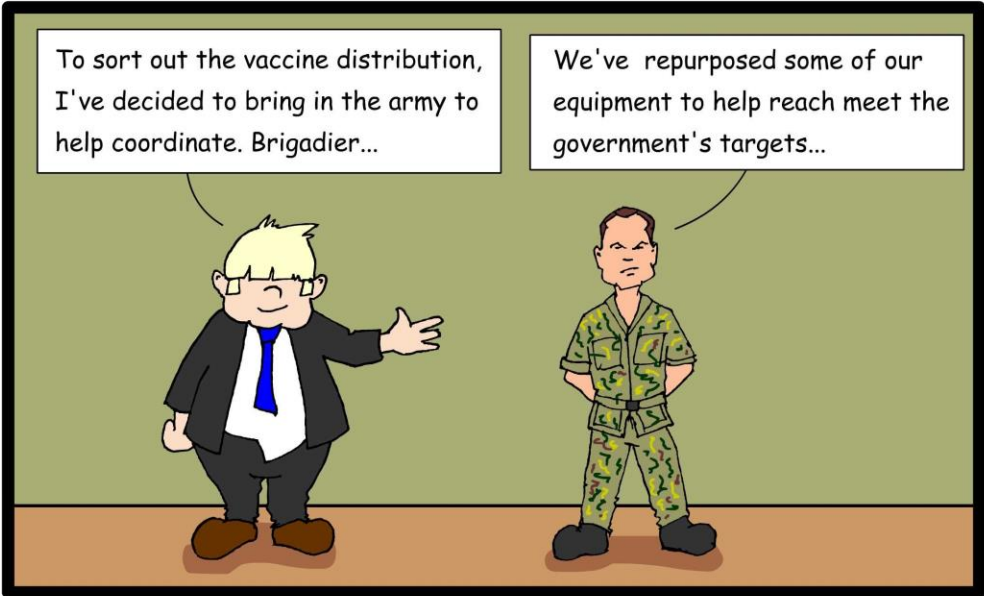

No...it's not that....Oh, I know!

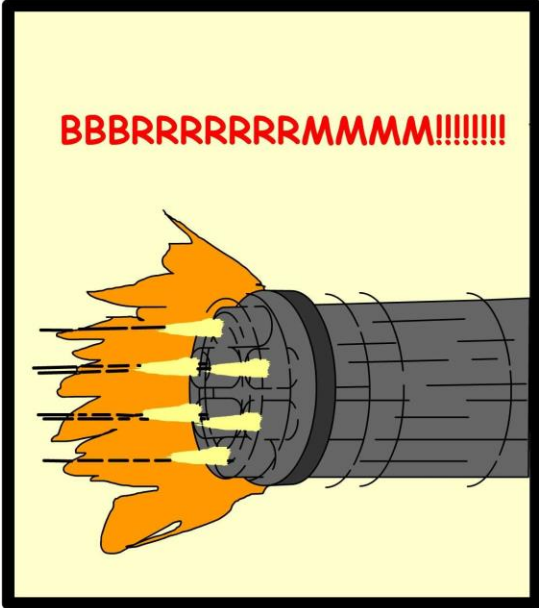

Could you excuse me for a moment...

Quick lads, scarper! We've been rumbled!!

The Count of Monte Covid

People seem to be getting complacent and aren't taking the new versions of COVID seriously! Personally, I think it's to do with the way they are being described...

Naming them after the country of origin - I mean, come on. The Indian Strain! Just sounds like you had a bad curry the night before...

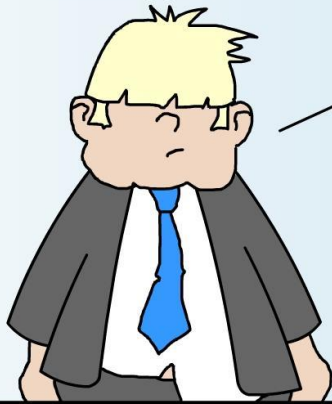

So, I've come up with a new method. From now on the new strains will be named after animals. The worse the strain, the scarier the animal. For example, a mild strain will be a gerbil...

Prime minister, we've discovered a new strain! This is the worst one yet! Hundreds of thousands will die! The streets will be strewn with bodies!!! It'll be fire, famine and plague!!

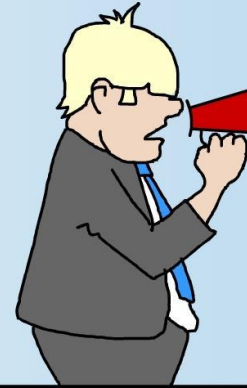

If our medical advisers think it's going to be that bad I'll have to think of a really scary animal. I mean they've been spot on so far....

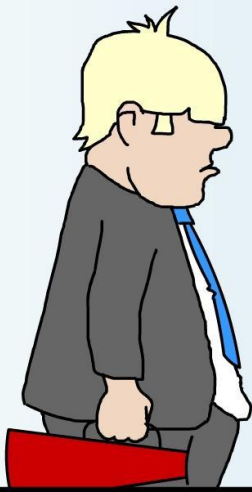

Right, time to test my new system!

Attention everyone! There is a new COVID strain! I repeat there is a new COVID strain. I am therefore declaring it a WOLF emergency!

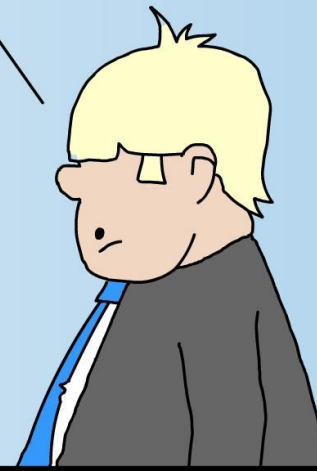

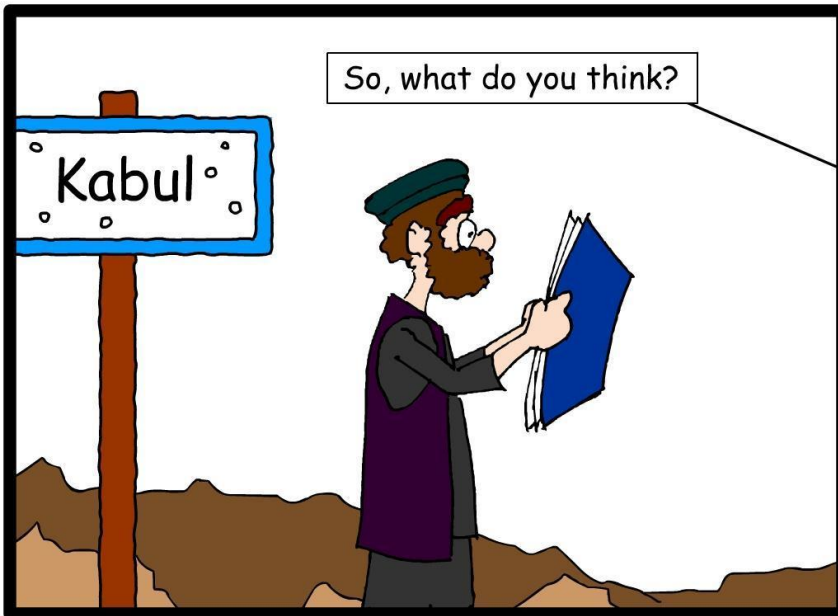

I again.....WOLF!

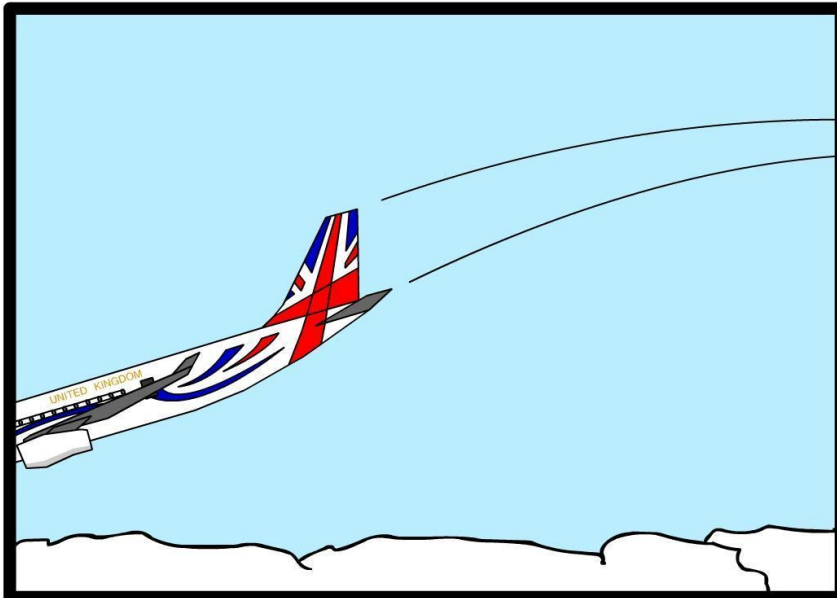

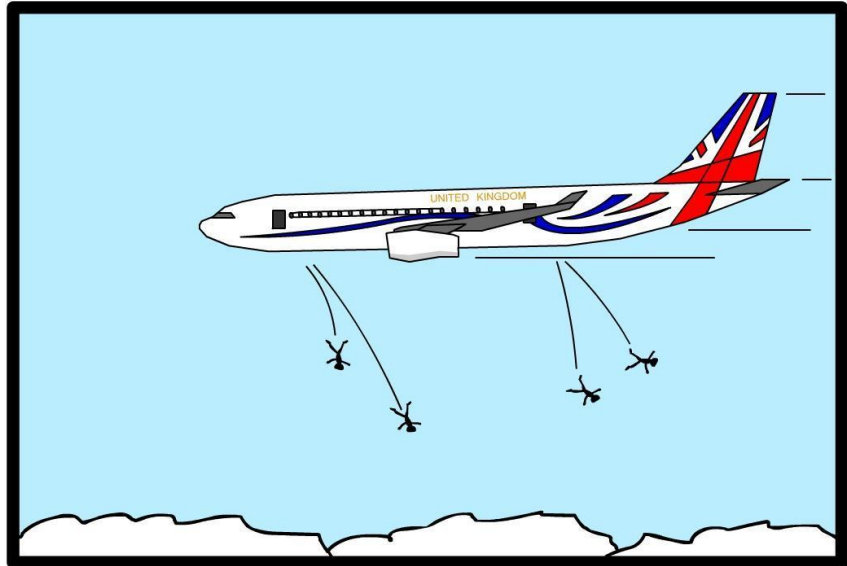

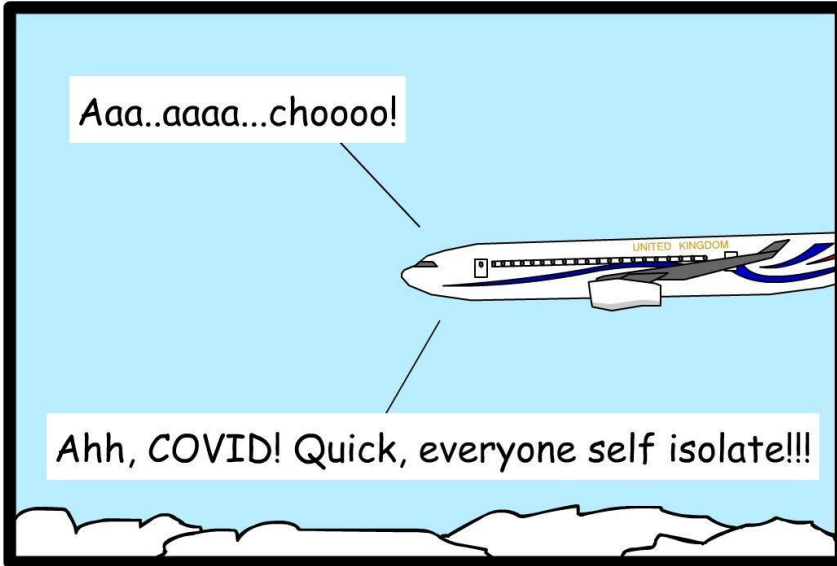

Naff off you pillock....

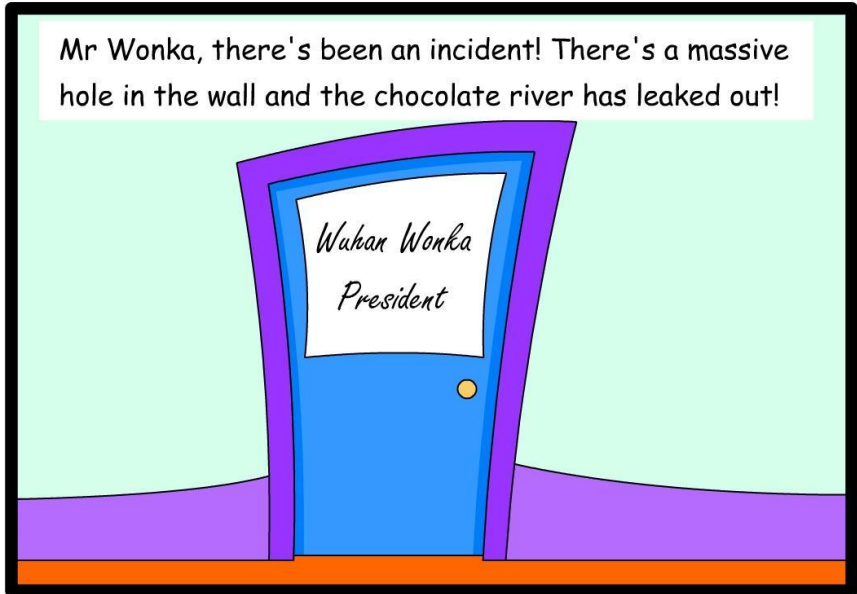

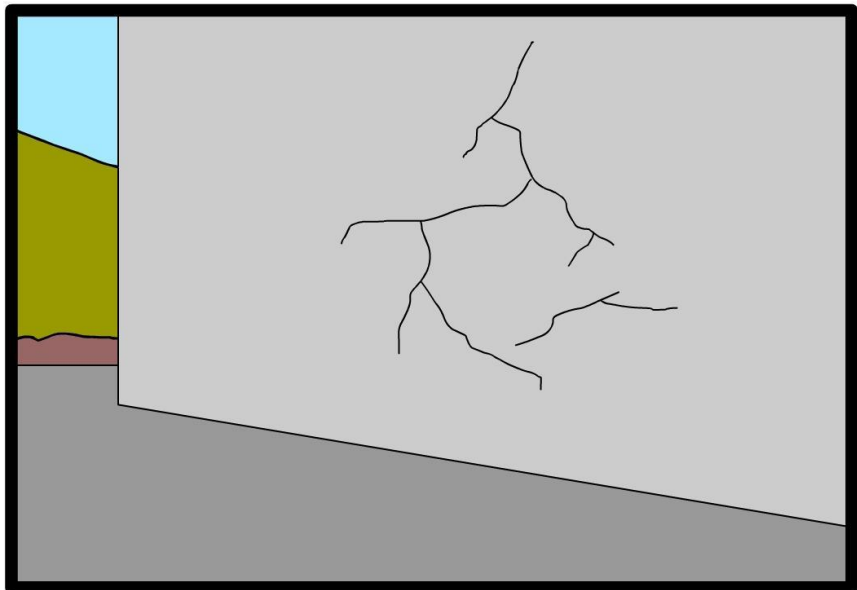

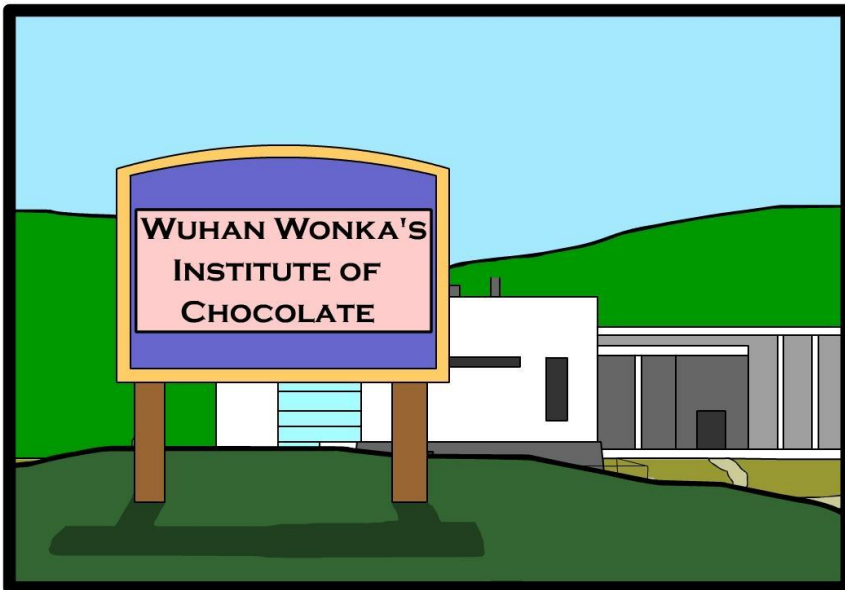

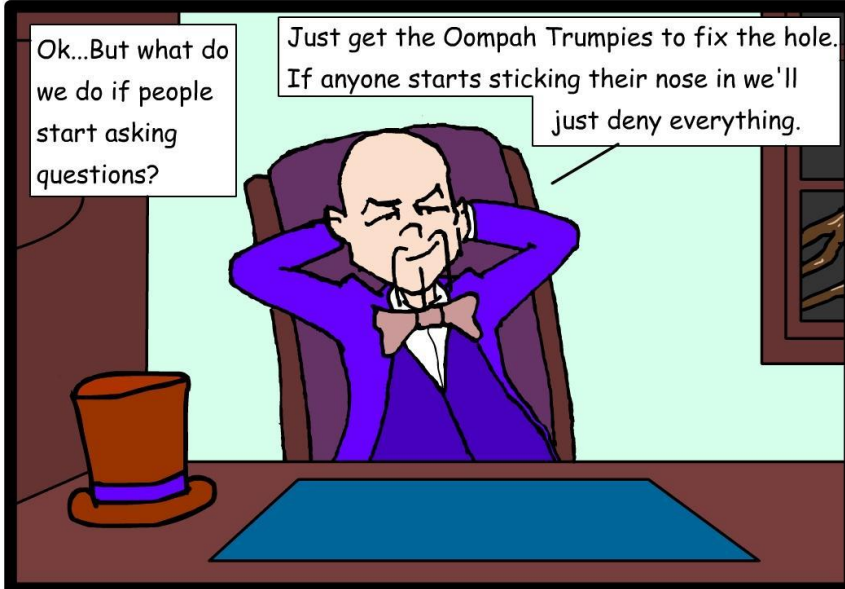

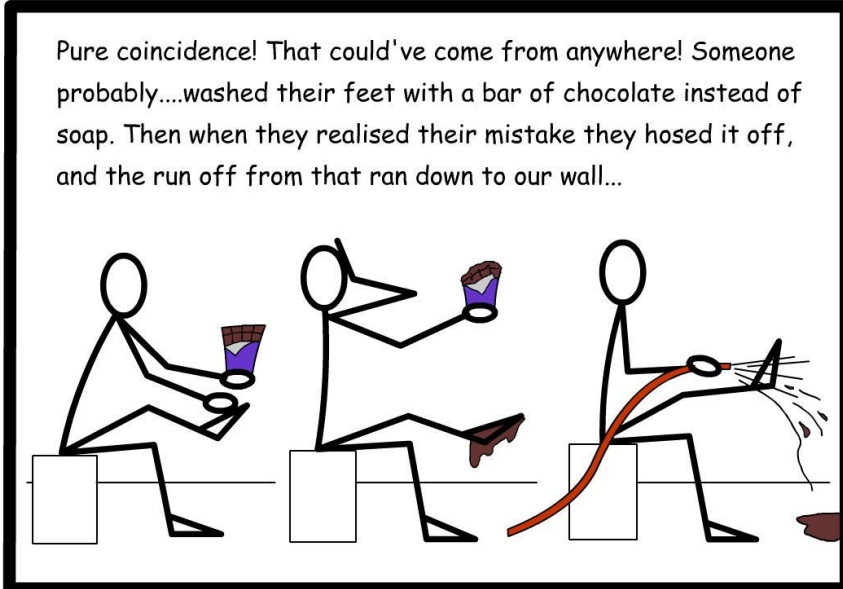

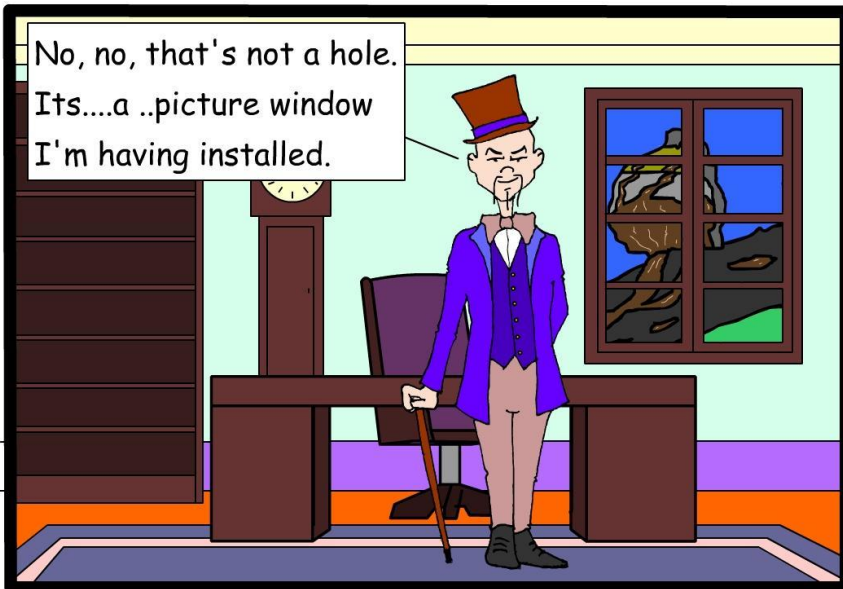

I don't understand! Why isn't it working?

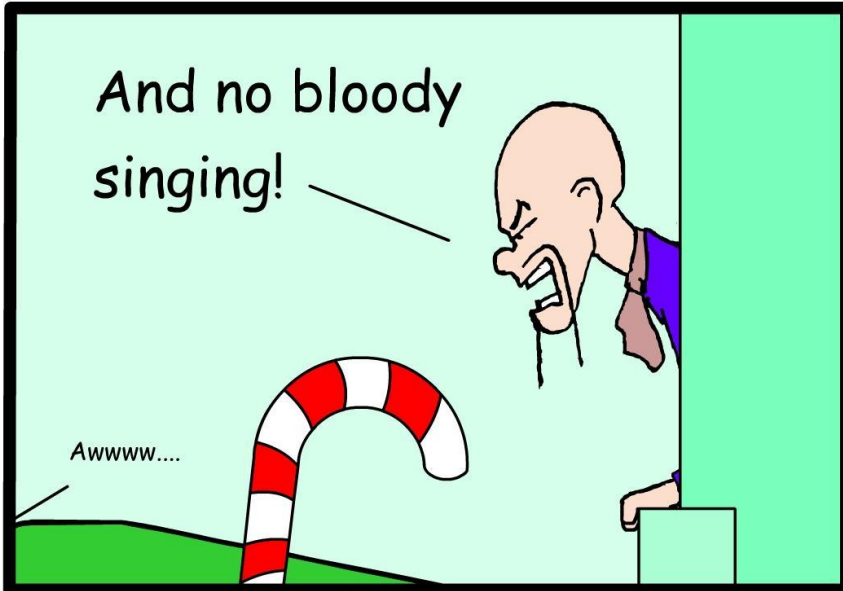

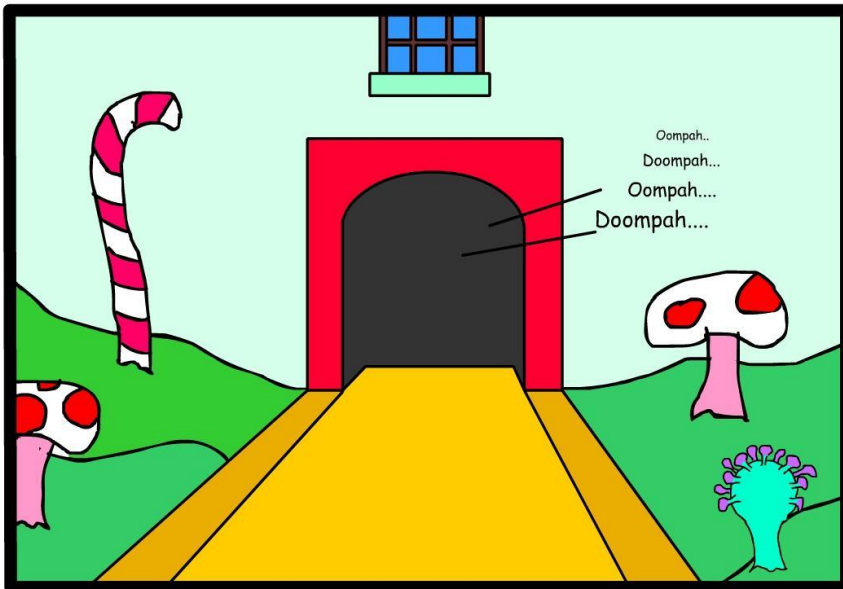

What did I just say!

As it's been raining so heavily recently, the government has decided that everyone should stay indoors in case they get wet.

Don't worry though, we've already been working on the problem and have come up with this! It's a 2 ply tissue paper umbrella!

Of course the umbrella won't be compulsory, but those that choose not to have one run the risk of getting soaked.

Once they have been issued to those that want them, everyone will be allowed outside again.

Hang on, I think it's stopping...

Well there you go. I think you'll find that everyone with the umbrella will now remain perfectly dry! Just goes to show how effective it is!

Uh, no, I don't think that's what it shows....

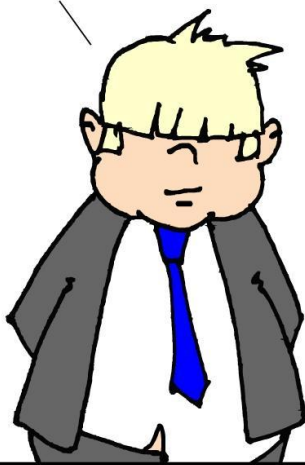

Yes it does. When have I been wrong before....

The Prime Minister has announced his new strategy for dealing with the Indian variant of COVID....

People have been talking about the roadmap out of lockdown.

That's when it hit me...if it's a roadmap, we'd need a satnav to help navigate....

...so after literally hours of work, here it is! I developed it myself. Let's turn it on and see how it works...

State

Pratnav 2021

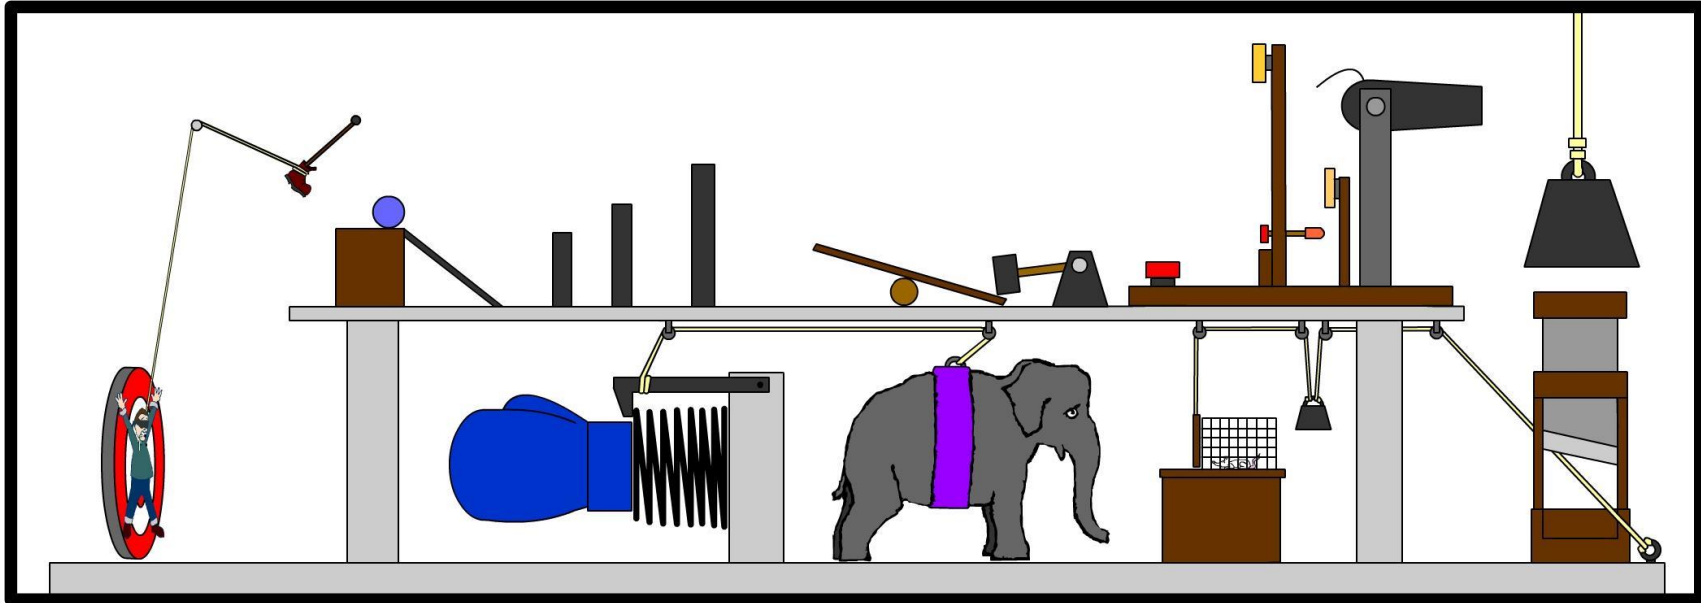

Show us how to get out of lockdown.

So doctor, what was the cause of death?

Well he tested positive for COVID...

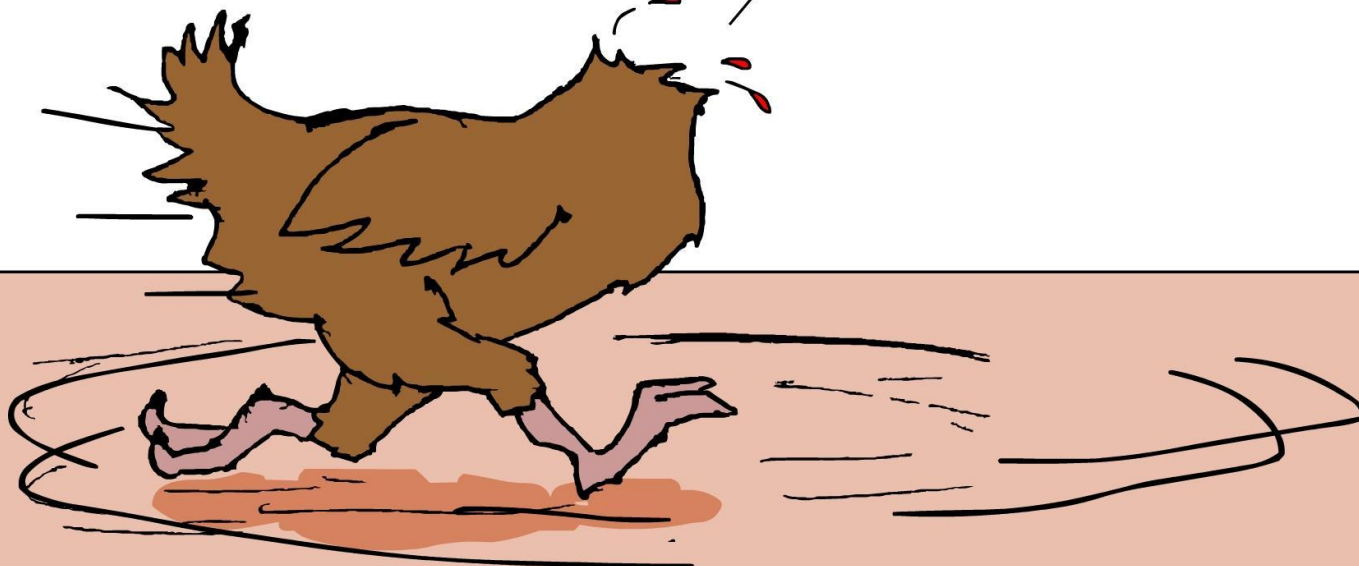

Damn, another death due to the virus!
When will it end.....

And now an urgent announcement from our new COVID spokesman concerning the Omicron strain.....

DON'T PANIC!!!!!!

DON'T PANIC!!!

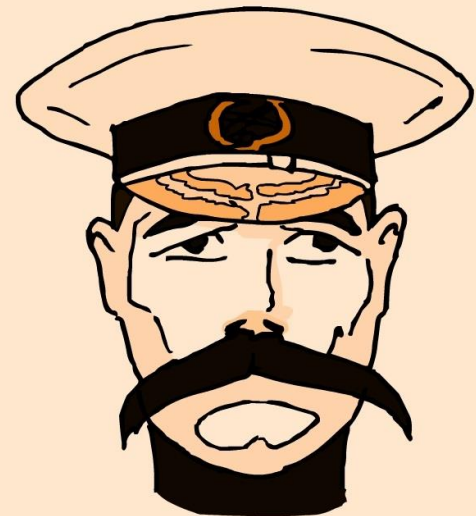

YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS

YOU

Can't, I'm
self-isolating.

OH...BUGGER....

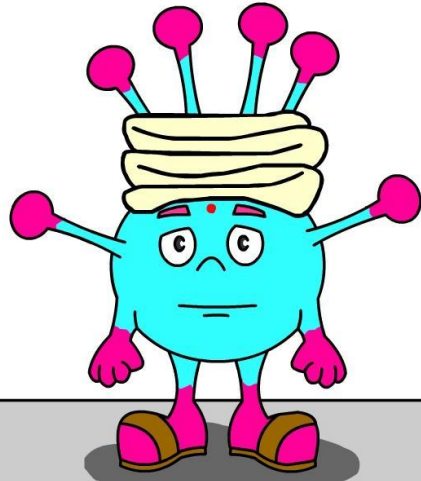

Prepared for the long months of isolation ahead, the magnificent creatures head into their home..

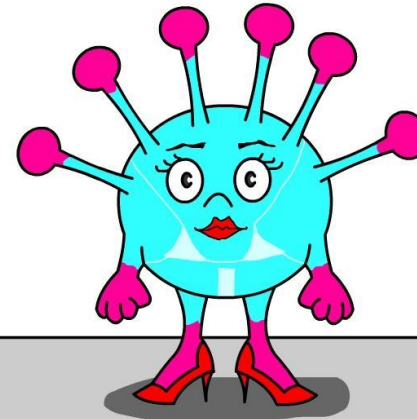

..only to emerge, months later, lean and ready for their long awaited freedom.

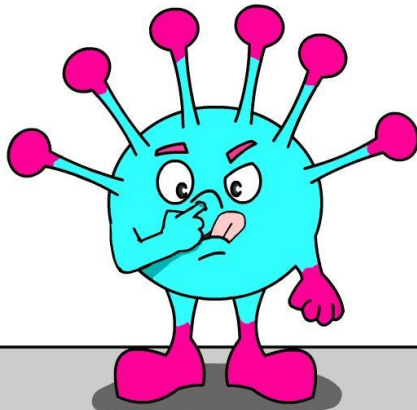

First there was the Indian strain of COVID....

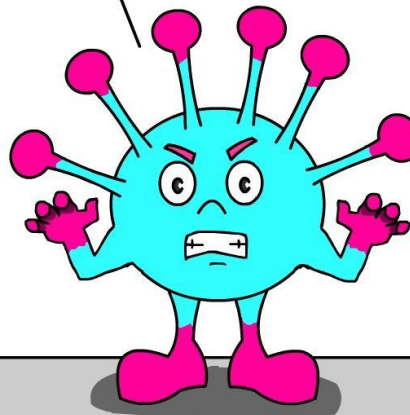

Then came the Brazilian!

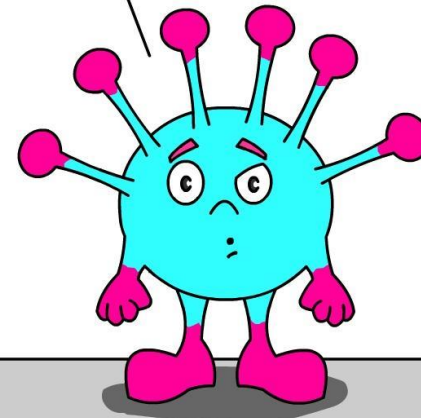

Now even worse than those two...the Omicron strain! Ahem...I said, "Even worse than those...."

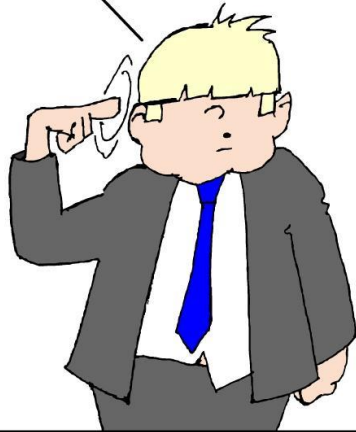

Oh, sorry. Grrrrr.....

How was that?

Is it just me or do all those anti-vaxxers seem bonkers, even for loonies!!

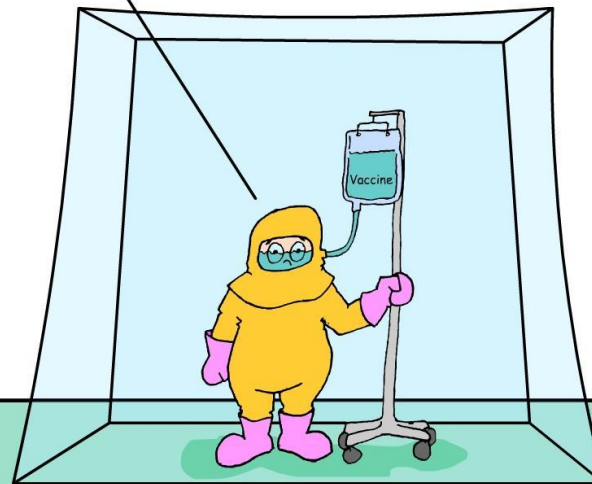

It's all a conspiracy...!!!!
Heeee hawwwww.....

Why they can't just have the injections like a good little drone I don't know....

Is it safe yet?

Well, who'd have thought....

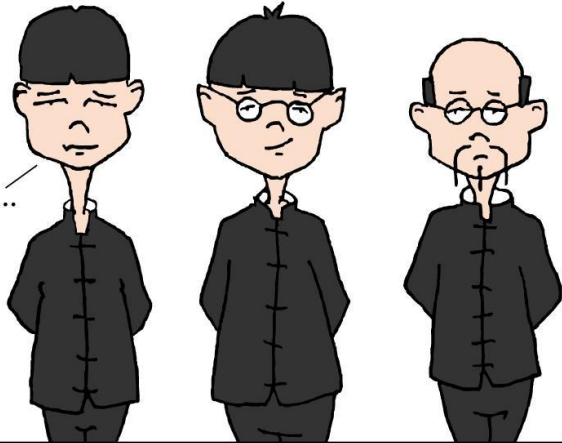

Going by the NHS statistics, if it wasn't for COVID, hardly anyone would've died last year! What are the odds!

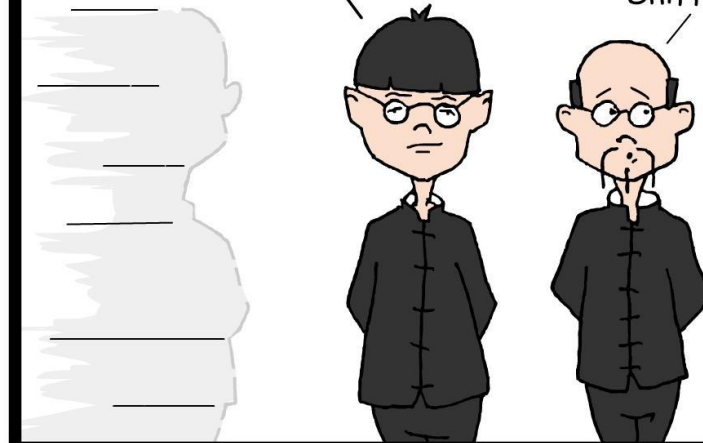

So, what of the reports of draconian measures in China to try and control the latest COVID numbers?

Cough...

Nonsense. We are just taking sensible precautions...

Sniff...eep...

But the reports say you are locking people up in squalid detention centres, even if they don't have symptoms...

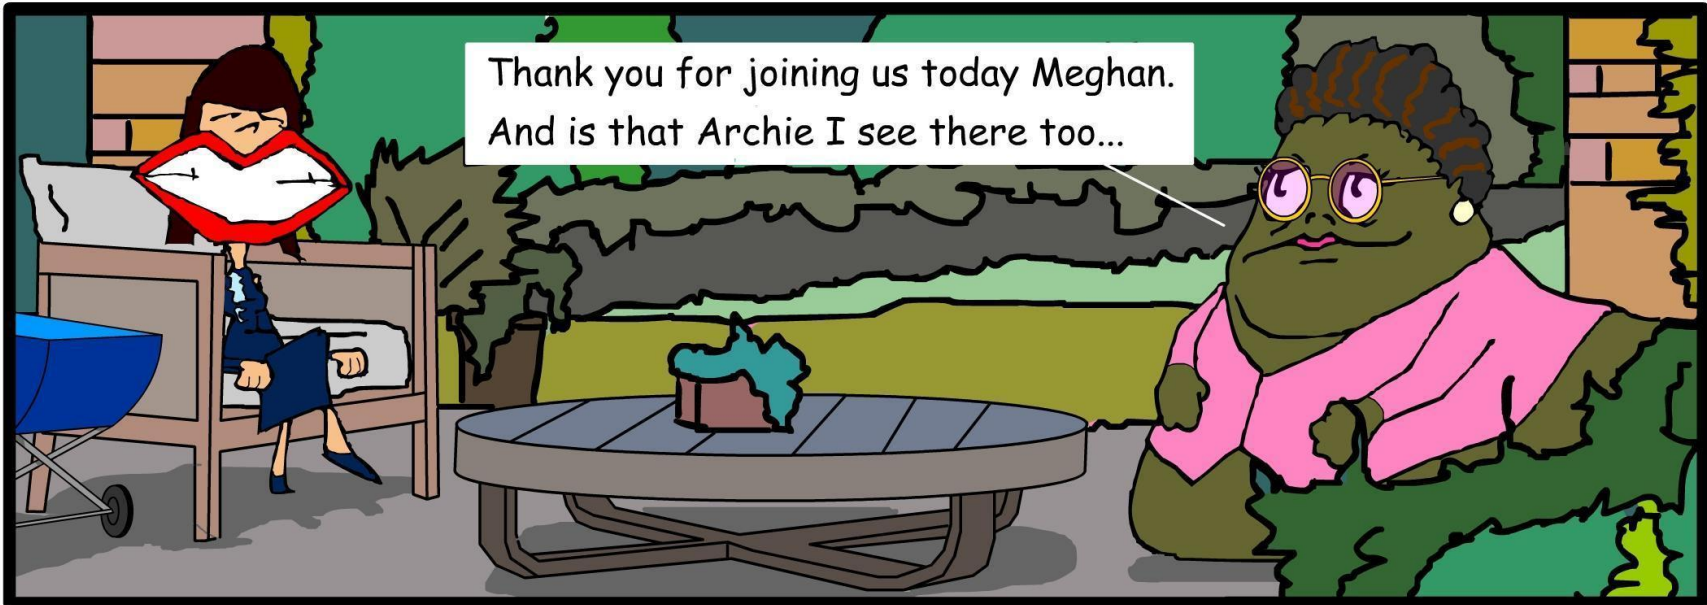

They aren't detention centres..they are state of the art medical facilit ...aah..ies. Sorry, thought I was going to sneeze then...

Part 2:

How to make a living from moaning

Well this has certainly been enlightening, but that's all we have time for today.

And thank you for watching. Don't forget to tune in next week when we'll be talking to ex-president Trump about the recent election.
Here's a sneak preview....

So, Mr President,

happened to your face?

Oh, I just got back from a meeting with her about the last bug she found up her butt..

So, could we have evidence of your racism claims?

Mmmmm, no, I don't think so. But tell me...

....why are you hitting yourself....

Ow, ow....quit it....

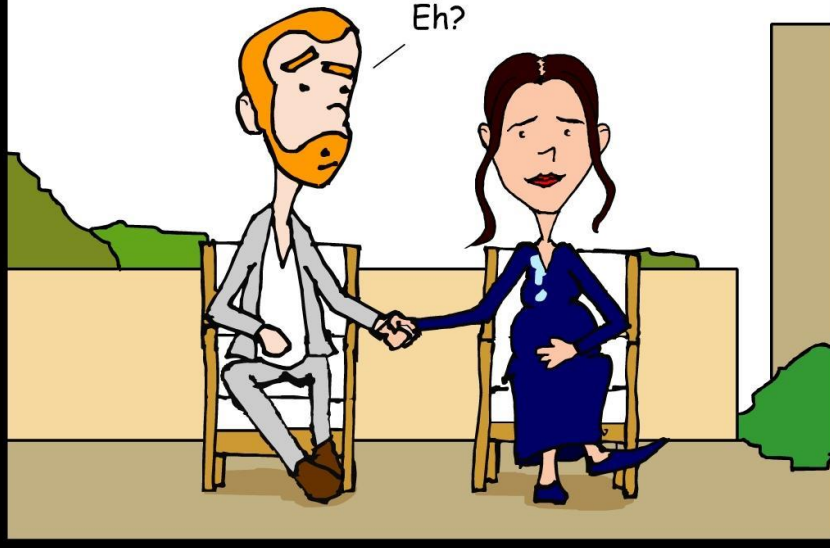

So, congratulations on the impending birth of your second child. Are you planning any more?

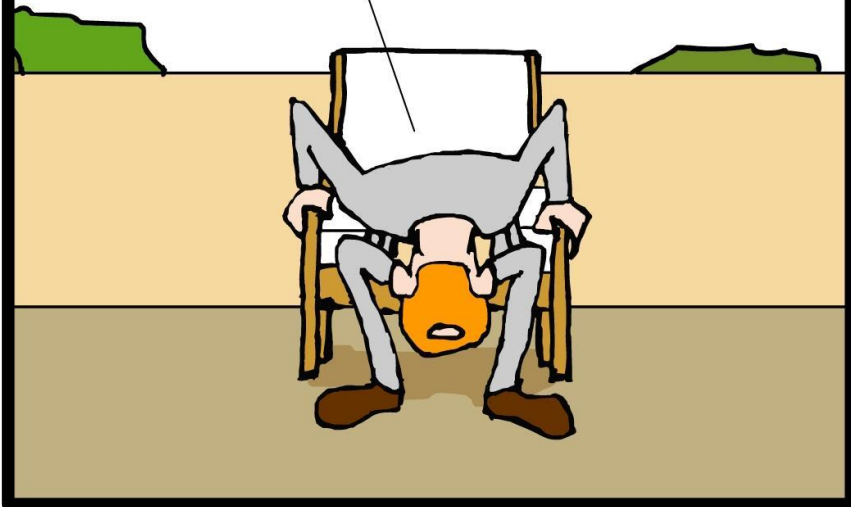

No, two is more than enough. Besides, I've already had Harry fixed.

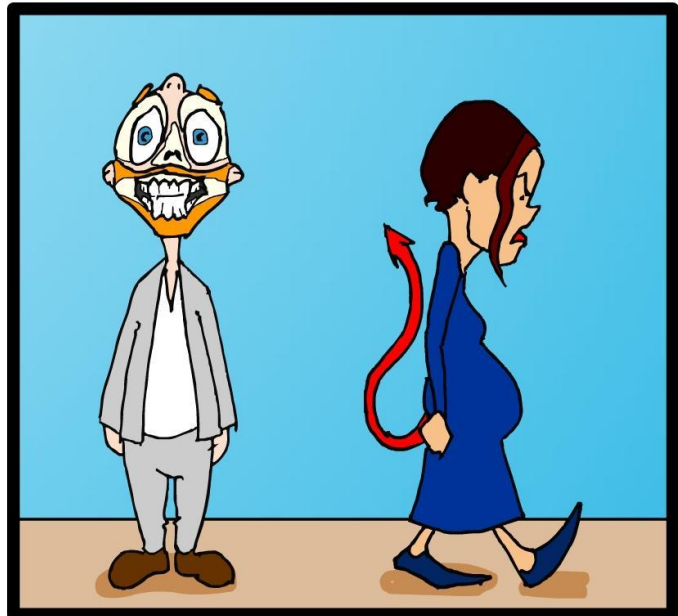

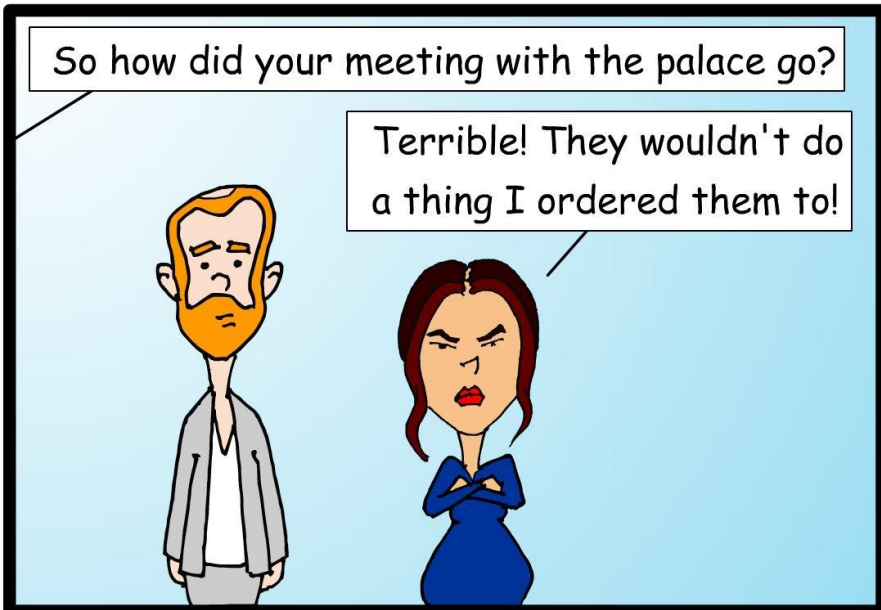

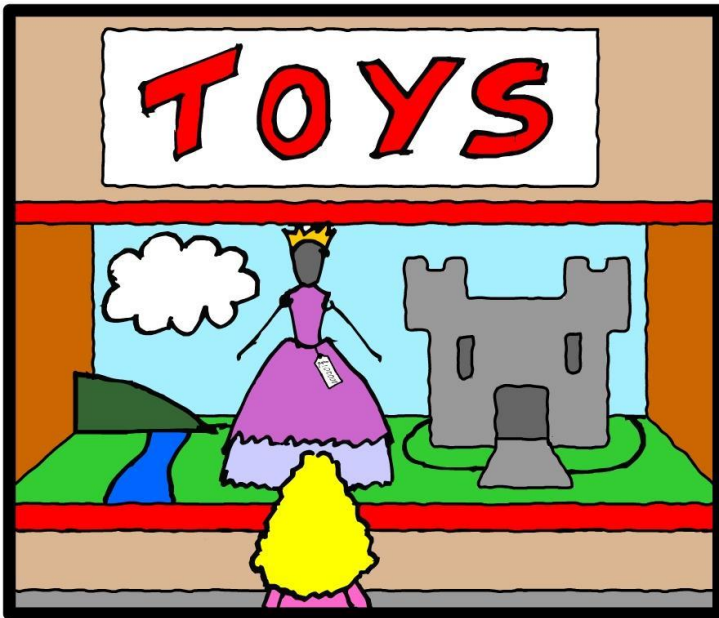

Eh?

Bloody Hell! My bollocks've gone!

Meghan's long awaited return to acting.....

All right, Meghan, let's try one!

Action!

Anne Boleyn, you have been sentenced to death! Do you have any last words?

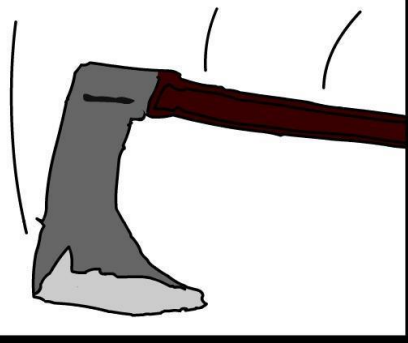

It's not fair! I only wanted to be a pwincess wiv lots of pwetty dwesses and castles....

That's not the line! CUT!

Eh? Oh, OK....

Oh no! There's been a terrible accident!

Yes...an..accident....

THUNK...

America seems to be making a lot of fuss over the fact that Meghan is half black!

Personally, if she hadn't said, I would've thought she was maybe...South American?

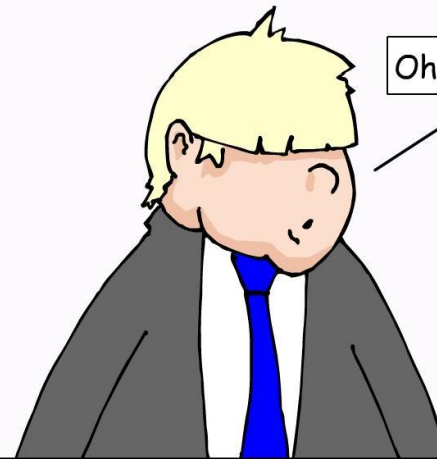

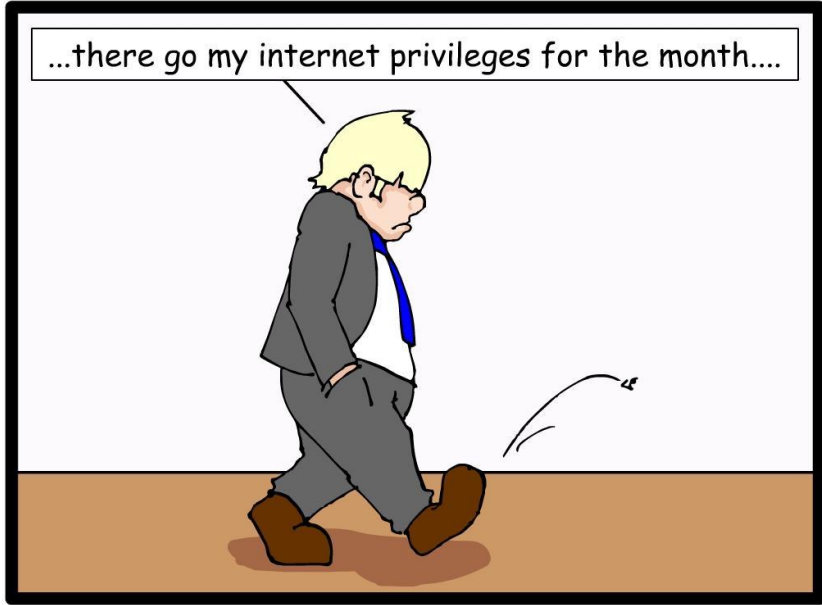

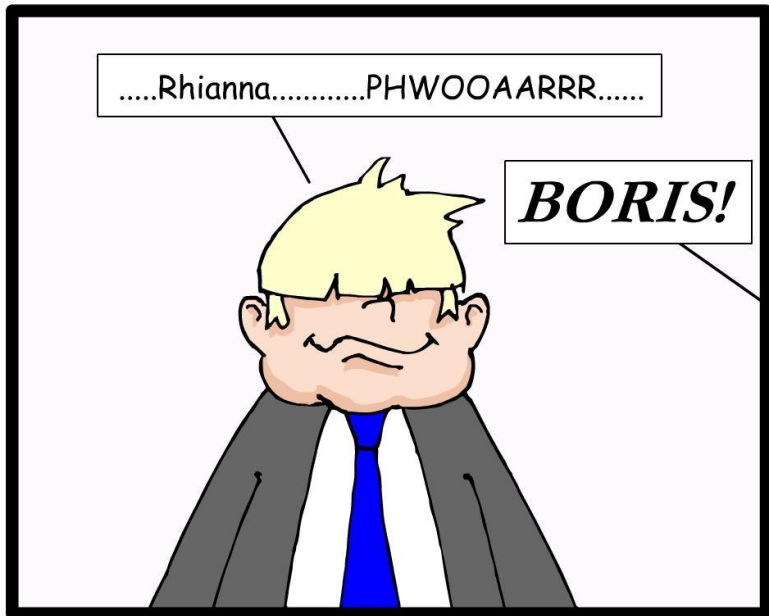

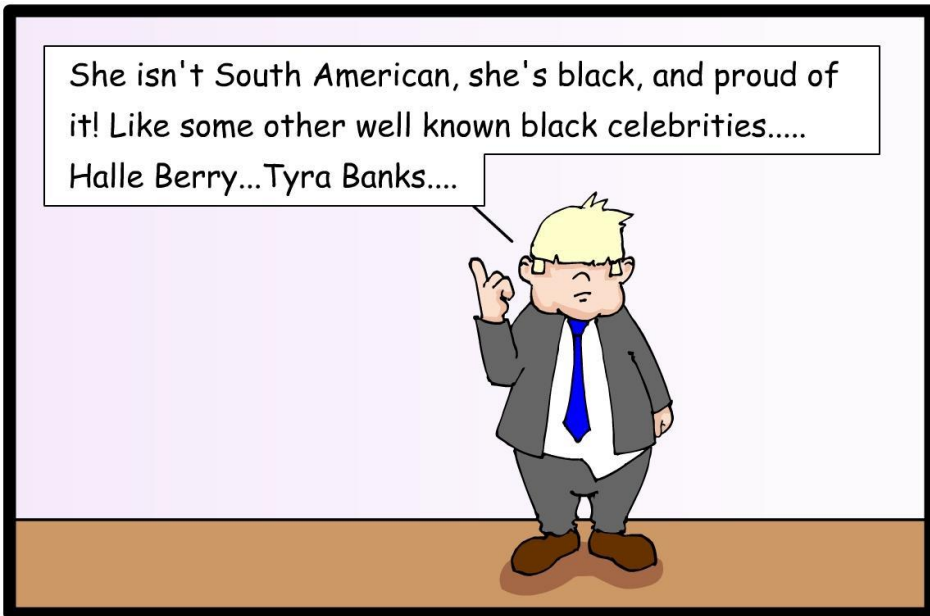

And come on! Have you seen some of those Brazilian models! Oooooof....

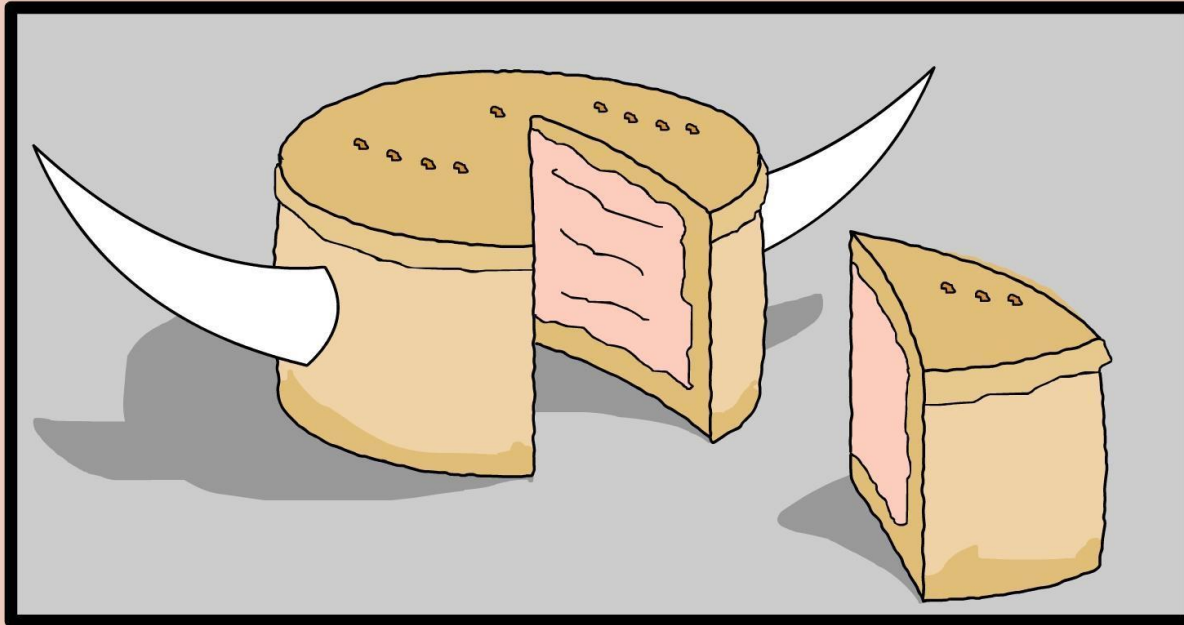

Ahem!

The Princess and the Frog

Once upon a time....

..there was a beautiful
Princess, who dreamt of being swept off her feet
by a handsome Prince.

One day, while skipping through the forest, she came upon a sign she had never seen before....

Ignoring the warning, she followed the path to see for herself. Sure enough, when she reached the pond, there on the other side, on a small rock, sat the frog.

Give us a kiss and I'll turn into a handsome Prince, said the frog.

The Princess thought about it for a second, then said,
Why not!

So she gave the frog a small kiss on the cheek, and then in what must've just been seconds....

.....

...the frog had magically transformed into the handsome Prince of the Princess' dreams!

She was immediately smitten, so the couple raced off to be married straight away (even though the Princess knew her family would have advised her to think about it, if only for a second.

Even so, the Princess' family, and the people of the land, were overjoyed by the news. The couple couldn't have been happier with the response.

But, unfortunately, the time soon came for the Prince to take his new bride home with him.

So, with heavy hearts, and a fond farewell, the Prince leapt onto his faithful steed and, sweeping the Princess into his arms, the couple galloped off into the sunset.

Not wanting to make a fuss, they kept their arrival in the Prince's land as low key as possible. Indeed, hardly a soul knew the Prince had returned home after all this time.

They built a small castle, just big enough for the two of them, in a secluded valley. If you were passing by you would hardly have known it was there.....

From then on they lived a life of blissful anonymity, avoiding the limelight whenever possible. And even when they did venture out, they kept the trips as low key as possible, so people wouldn't make a fuss just because of who they were.

So successful were they at keeping their private life private, their picture almost never appeared in the papers. So much so that people almost forgot what they looked like! After much pleading by their adoring fans, they finally agreed to have an official portrait painted which would be displayed for all to see. It would be a fitting reminder of the benefits of the quiet, peaceful life the Prince and Princess wholeheartedly promoted (and that was the only thing they would promote, no matter how many offers, or how much money was offered them).

Dopey and the Beast

After months of speculation, details have finally been released about Prince Harry's 4 book deal..

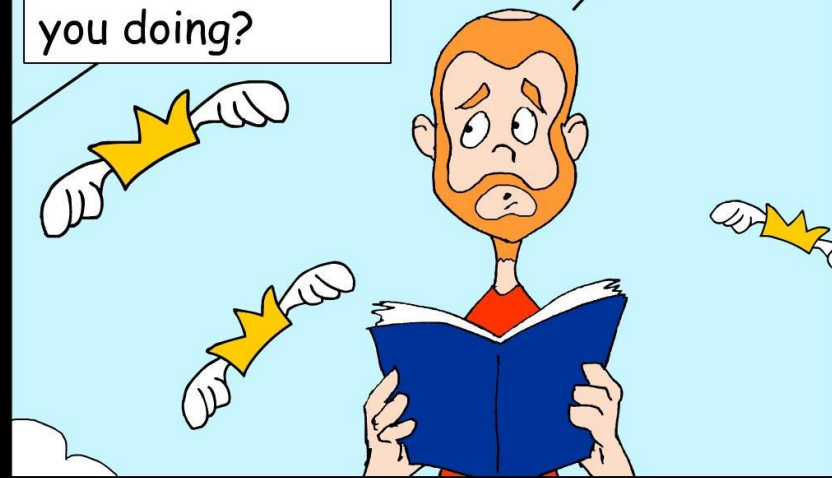

He's asked for 3 colouring books and a dictionary, so he can look up all the words Meghan won't let him use....

F...u...

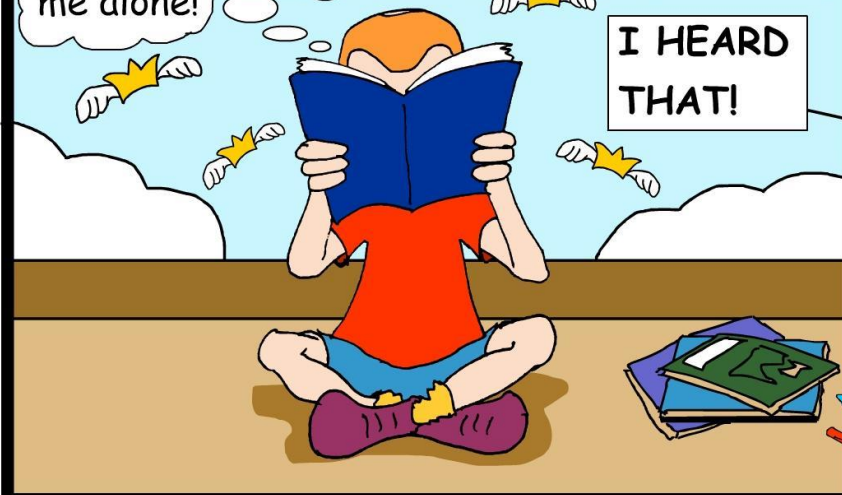

Harry! What are you doing?

Nothing dear...

Why don't you just Fudge off and leave me alone!

I HEARD THAT!

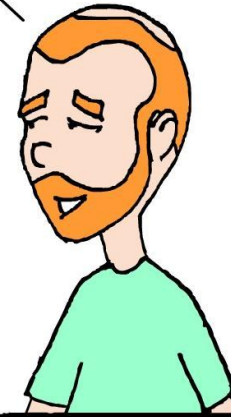

The question you have to ask yourself is, did she fire six or only five? Well, in all the excitement I forgot myself...

...uh, hang on a mo...

Snookums, how many assistants have you fired?

5, ginger pie...Oh, you idiot!
Better make that 6 now...

Oh, yes. Wuv you.....So the question you have to ask yourself is, do I feel lucky?
So do ya...uh...

Mrs Jones.

Right. So do ya, Mrs Jones?

It's like the energy flow

Part 3:

Everything else that happened (mostly)...

You may have heard of my latest brain-wave...to build a tunnel across the Irish Sea. This is the genius part though....

...rather than going under the seabed...

..we'll go through the water instead!

The Irish are so keen, they wanted to make an early start on their end, but they've run into problems.

They've said drilling through the water has been easy, but trying to stop the leaks has been a bugger!

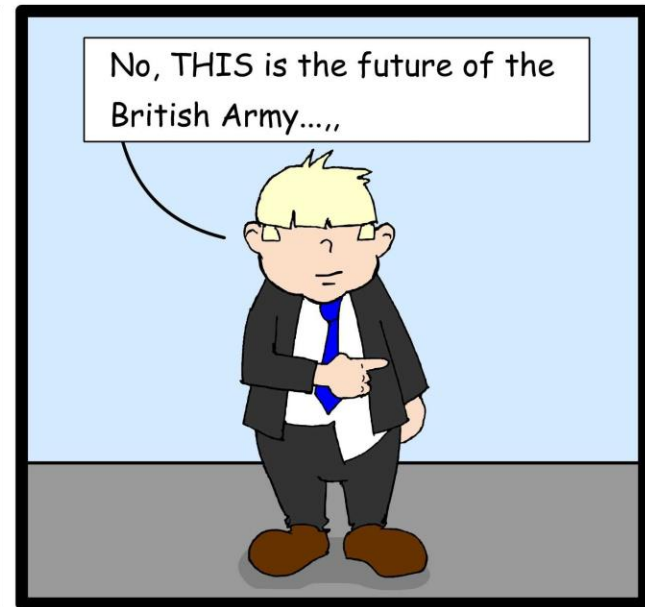

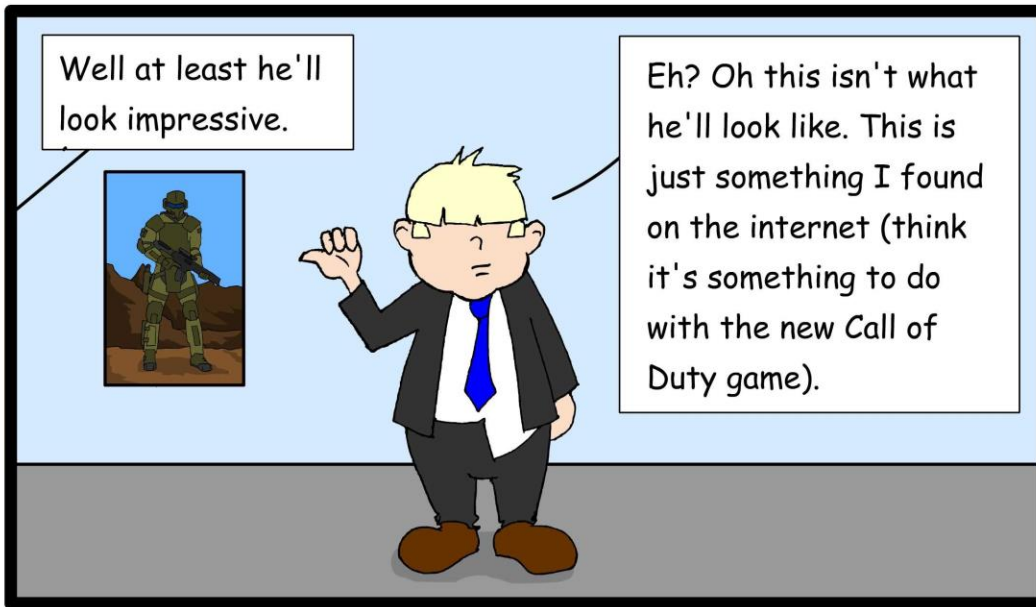

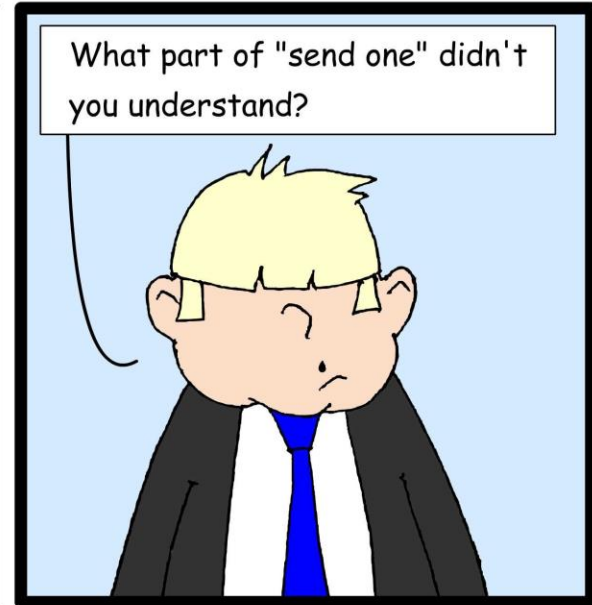

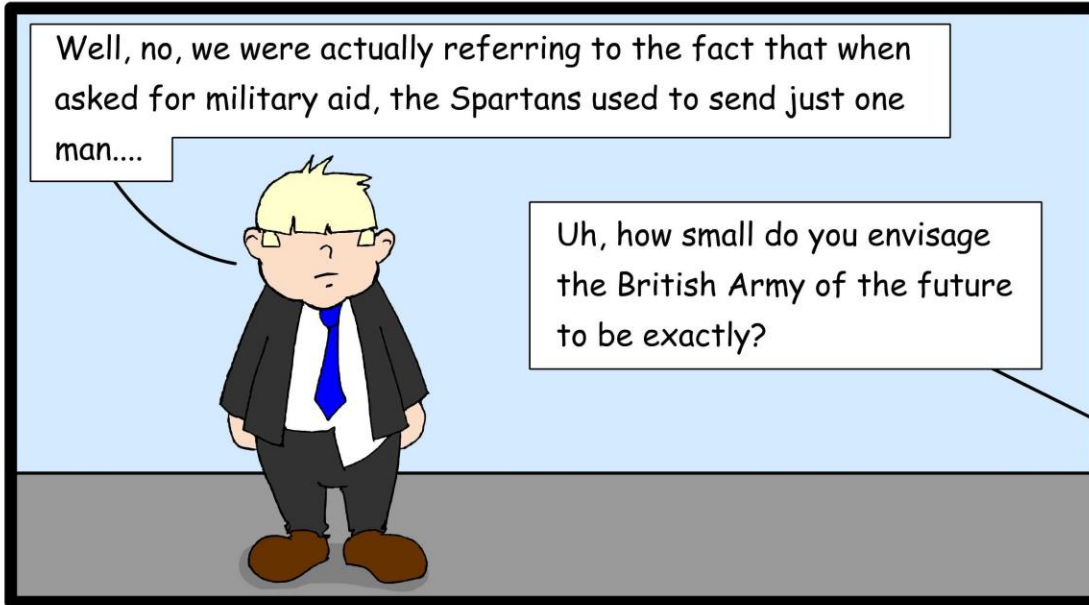

Erm, Boris me laddie'o. If I could just be having a word wif yerself.....

As the government has decided to decrease the size of the army, inevitably changes will have to be made. As a result the British Army of the future will be very different from that of the today. But, as inspiration for the future, we have looked to some of the greatest soldiers of the past - the Spartans!

At last, a sensible idea! So although smaller, the army will be manned by highly trained warriors, like the Spartan hoplites?

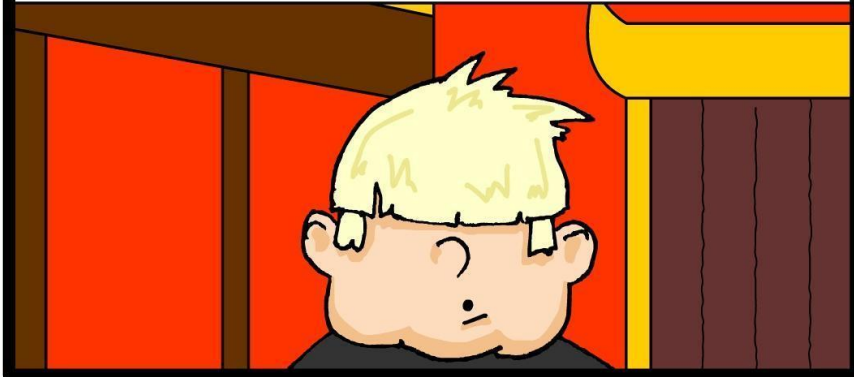

...WIDDLE!

Hang on, me danglers stuck...

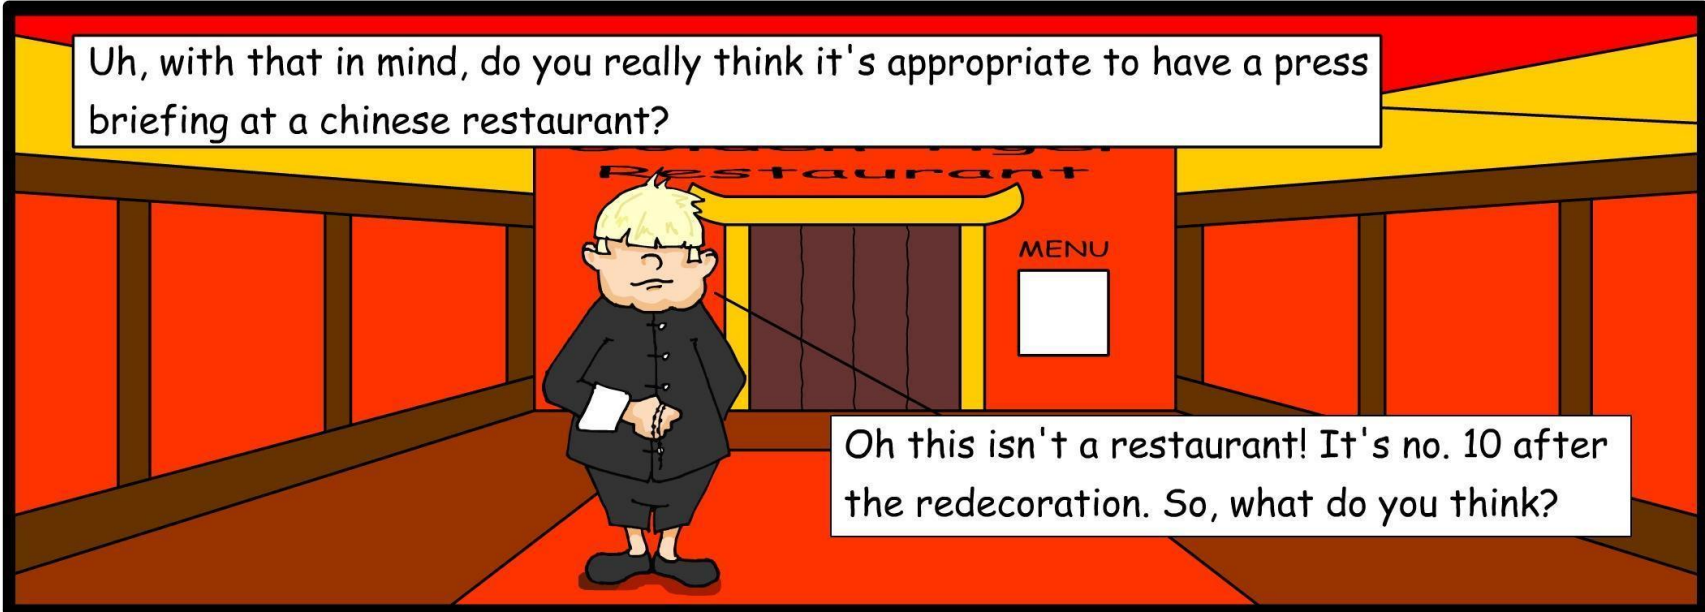

Now that the virus fiasco is coming to an end, at least until the next lockdown, and given that it originated in their country, and their, let's be generous and say, questionable response to the initial outbreak.....

....what do you say to those people that think you are too eager to start making new deals with the Chinese government, and now is the time to back off? They think you are being too heavily influenced by them.

Uh, with that in mind, do you really think it's appropriate to have a press briefing at a chinese restaurant?

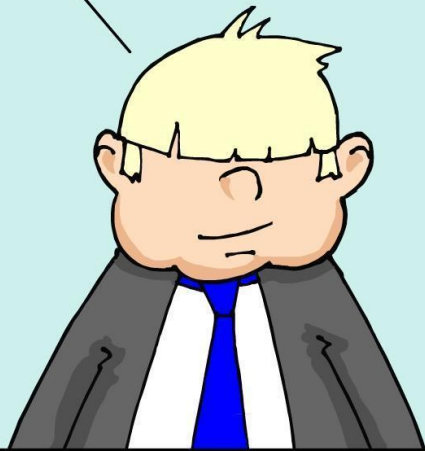

Oh this isn't a restaurant! It's no. 10 after the redecoration. So, what do you think?

So Boris, how is your relationship with Carrie after the revelations of your affair with Jennifer Arcuri?

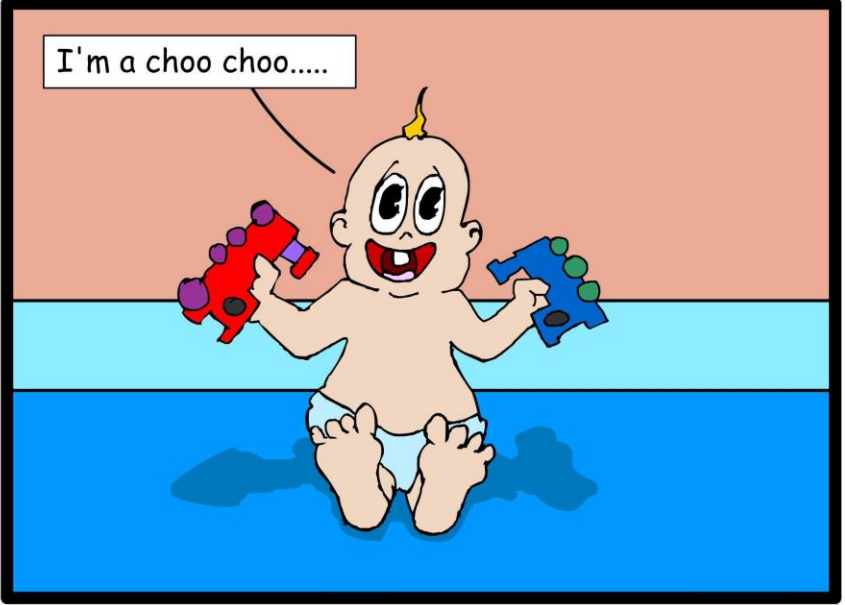

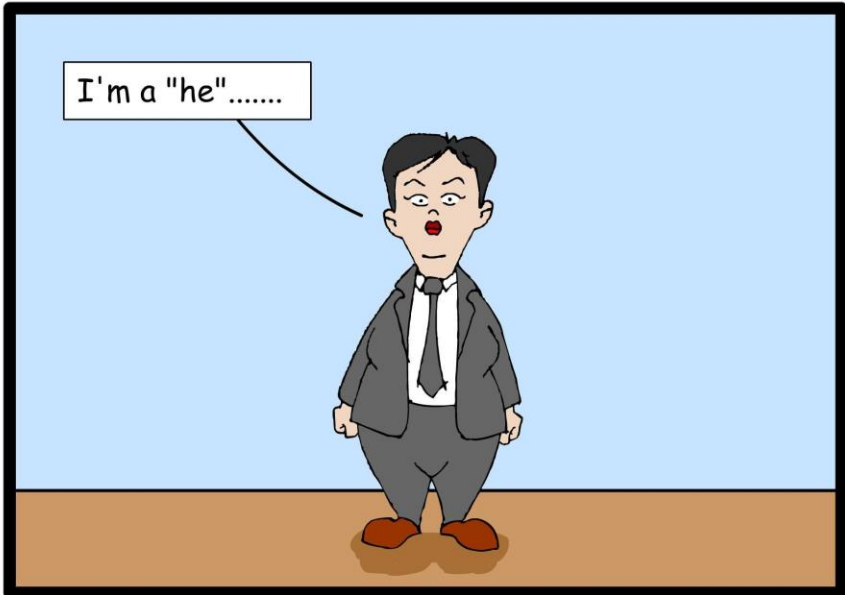

Things are fine! It was before we got married anyway. She trusts me completely!

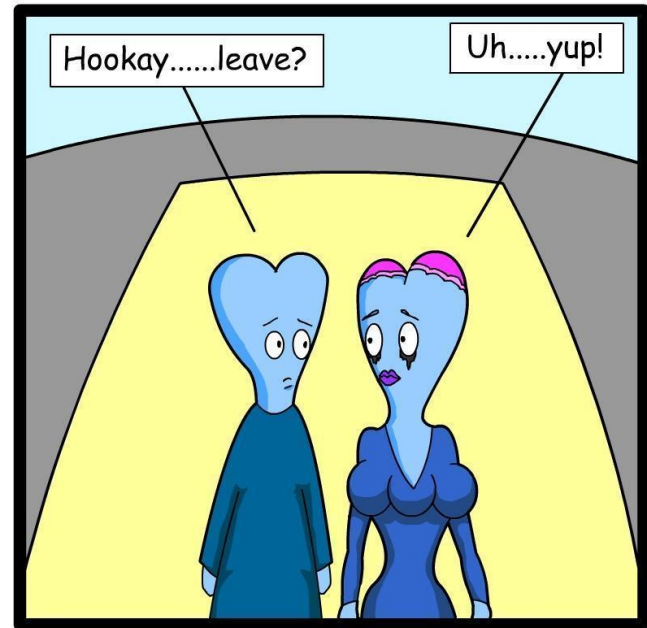

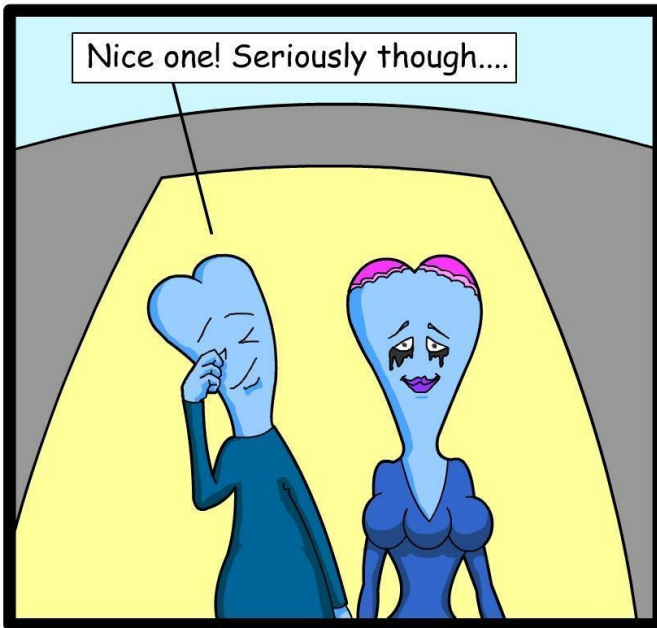

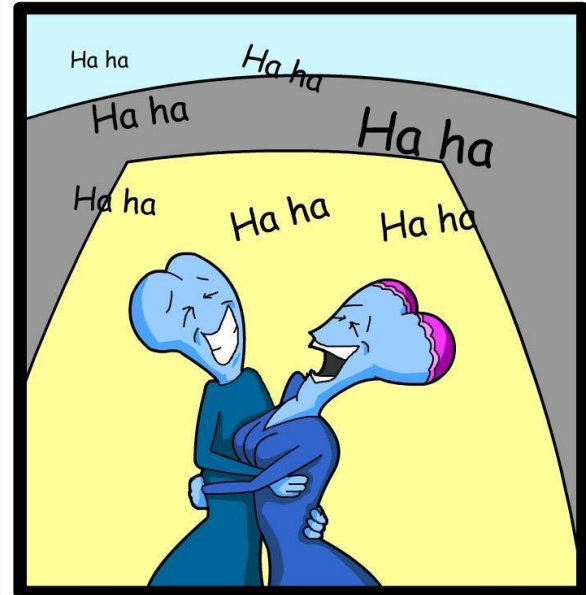

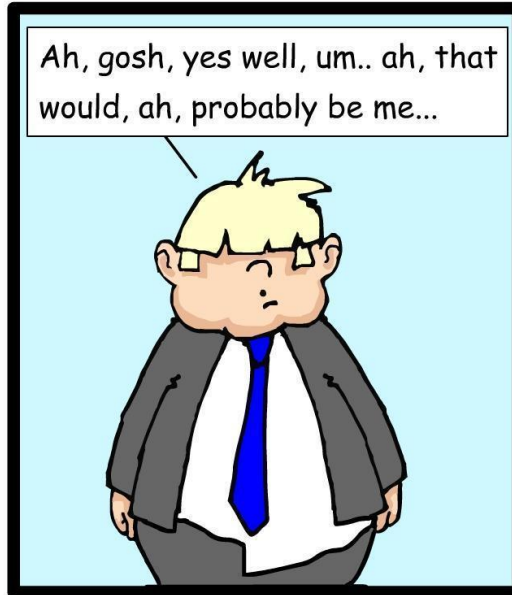

So nothing has changed?

Absolutely nothing!

Due to the number of disruptions caused by the Extinction Rebellion and Just Stop Oil loonies, the Department of Transport have introduced a new sign to warn drivers of obstructions ahead....

Halle Berry has apologised for controversial remarks about her plans to play a transgender man in an upcoming film, a role she will no longer perform.

She said she would also like to take this opportunity to apologise for the X-Men films. As lightning doesn't shoot out of her arse, she obviously isn't a weather controlling mutant, so should never have taken that role either.....

So Boris, how is your drive to turn Britain green going?

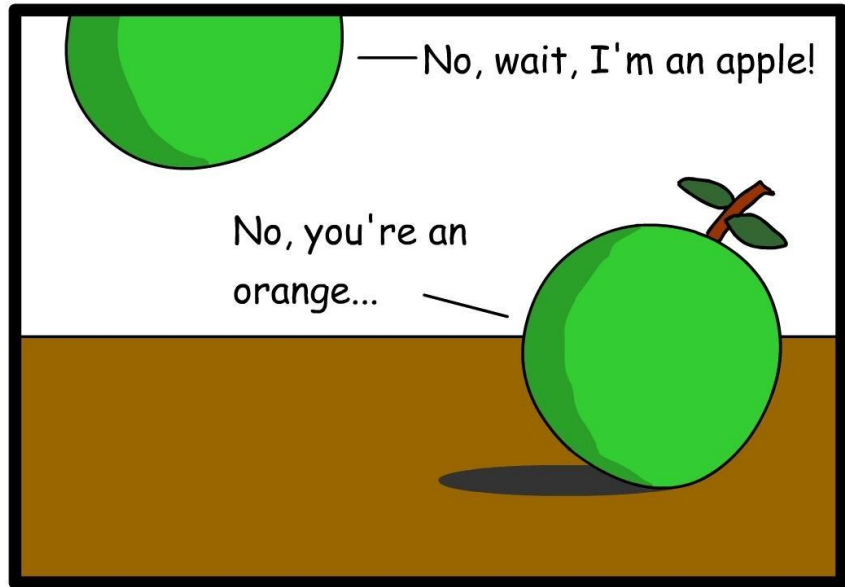

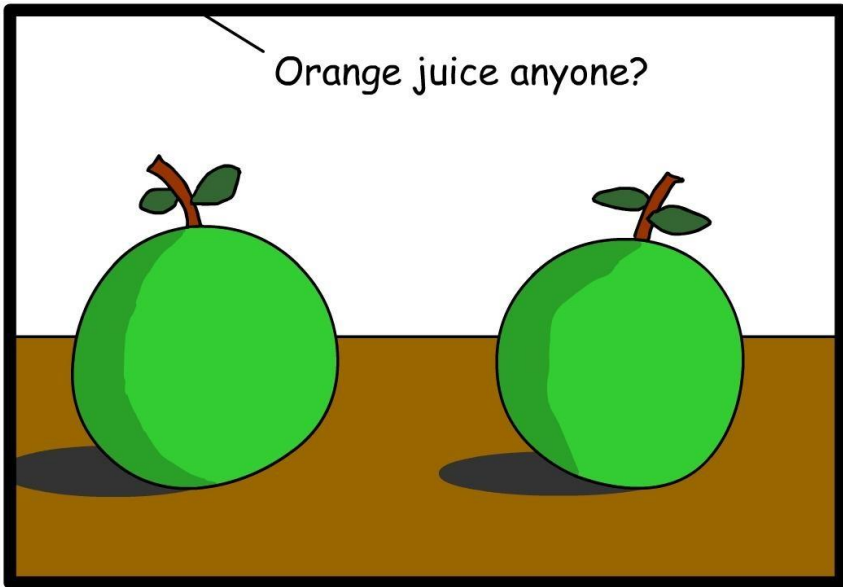

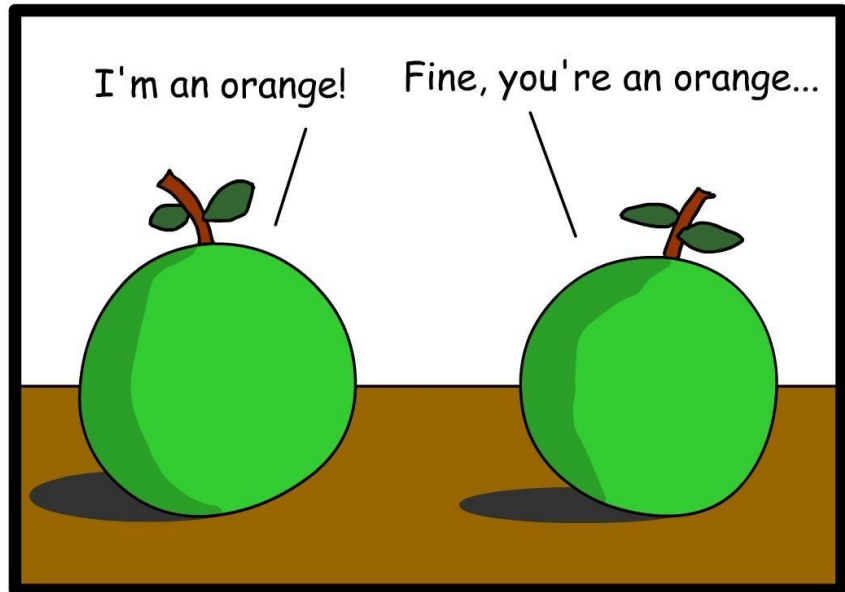

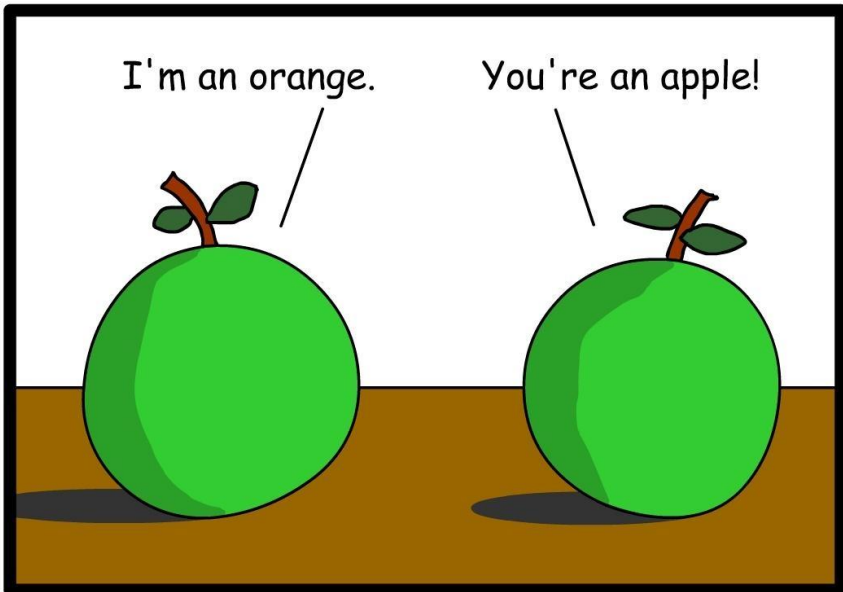

Obviously the switch to new forms of energy production won't be easy. But our scientists are developing a new type of generator and I'm sure that once they have ironed out all the problems, they will solve all our future energy needs.

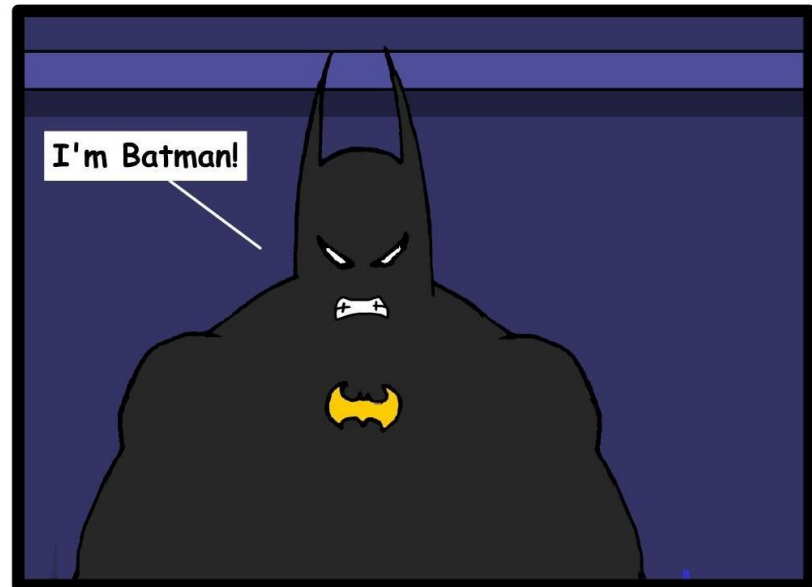

I've had the prototype fitted in number 10 and from initial testing it's looking promising.....

Pedal faster Boris, the kettle is still cold.....

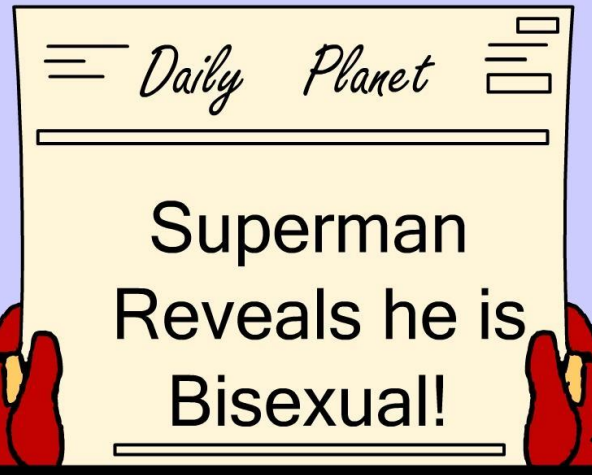

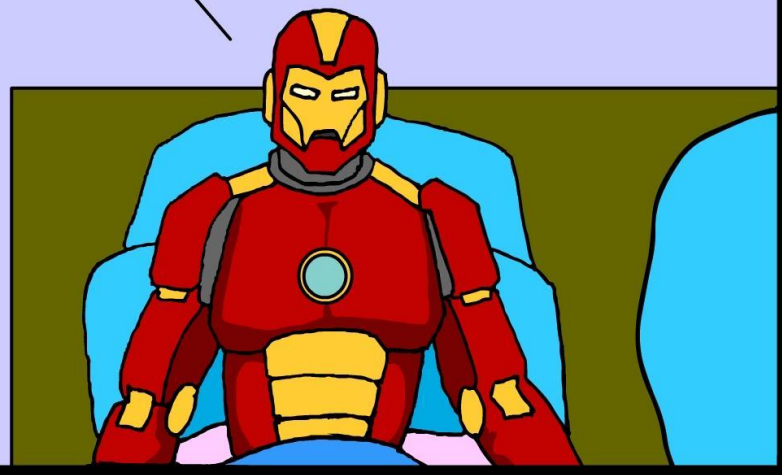

Ta da....

So Superman has announced that he's bisexual.
Well it's not really surprising....

..I mean, someone that wears tights under their trousers for that long must have something else going on.

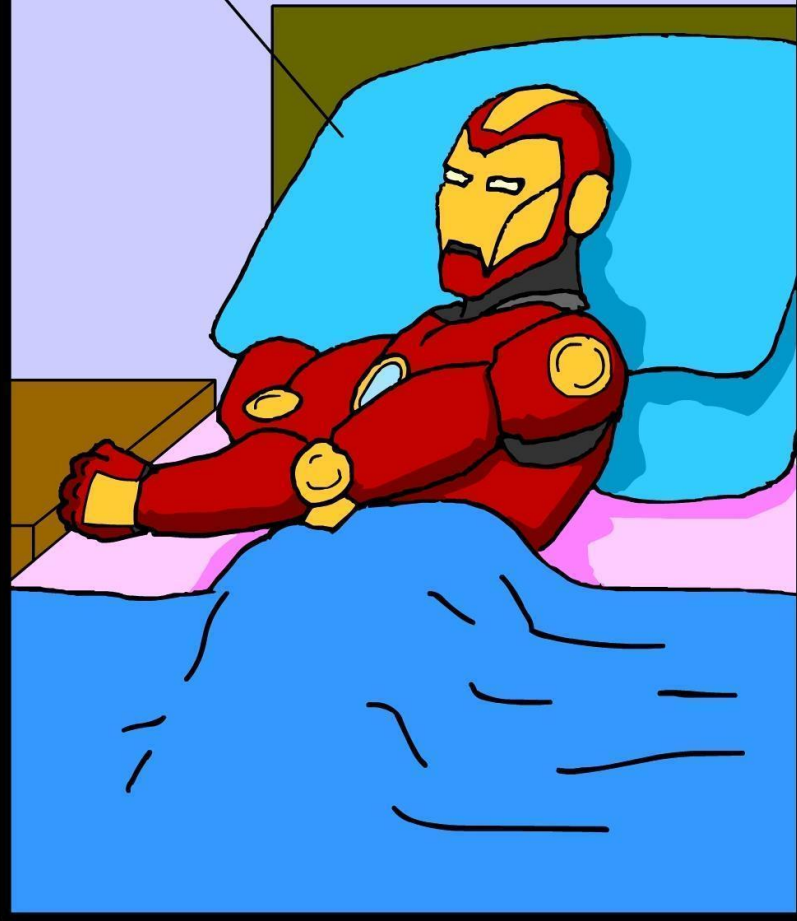

Don't you think?

Whatever you say.
So....Ironman want to spoon?

Oh, OK...but no Hulk Smash this time. I still haven't got all the dents out from last time..

Me know. Hulk sorry...

As the original version of this joke was conceived when Trump was still President, in the interests of fair play, two versions follow. The original Trump version, then the same joke just with President Biden.

....I think it's time we updated our name. There are so many new categories that people are using to describe themselves, that even I'm starting to get confused! So, ideas?

How about just adding "Other"?

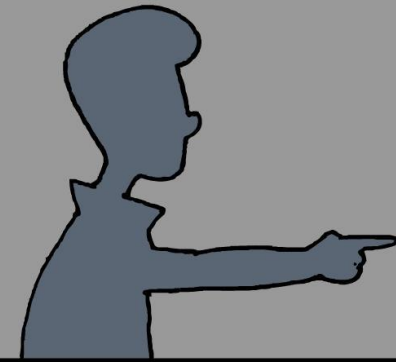

Well, it's a start but I don't think it's specific enough.

Multi Gendered?

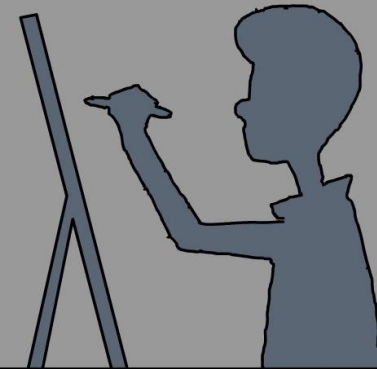

Oh, I like that. Sounds impressive but absolutely meaningless!

What if people don't want just one label? Maybe they want to call themselves whatever they feel like at any one particular moment?

Well rather than using "Whatever they feel like", if we just use "Whatever"?

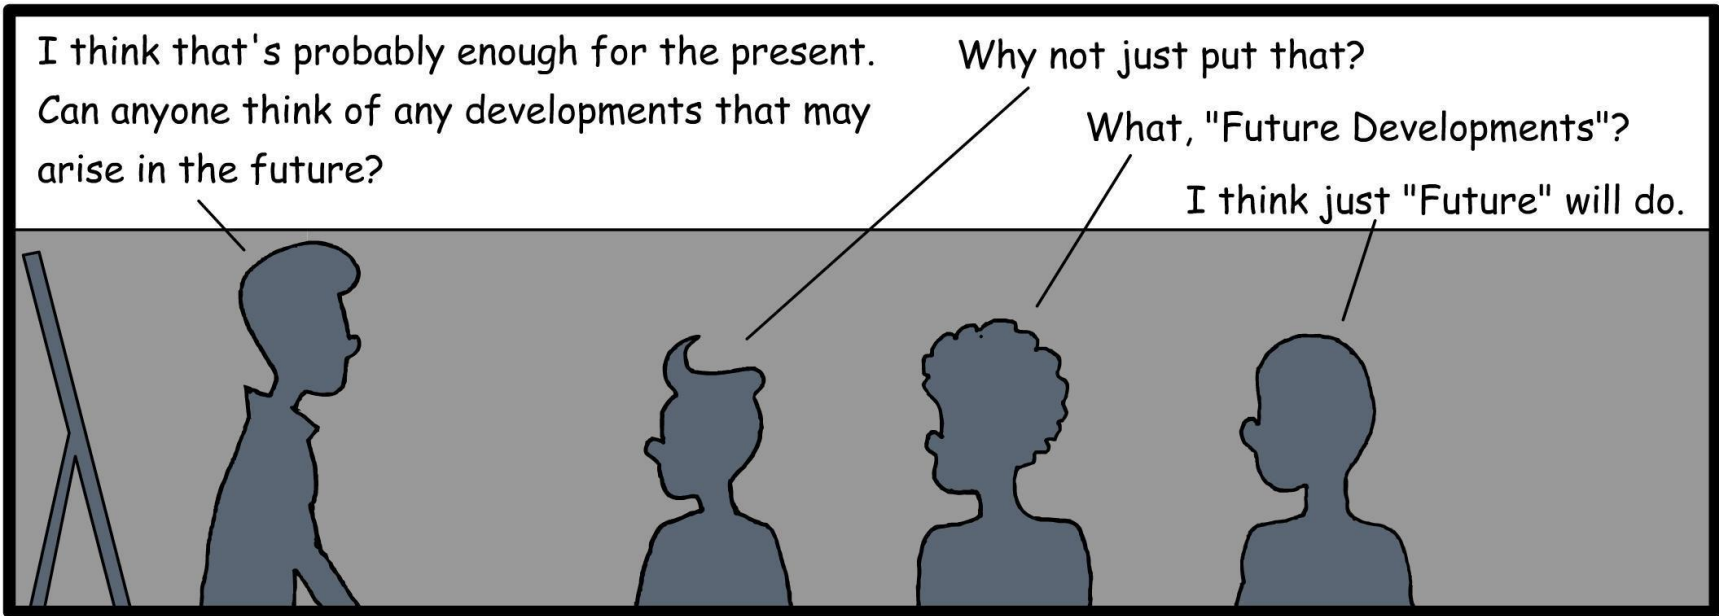

How about the people who are first to describe themselves as something new?

Like..... "Trailblazers"?

Exactly!

So it's decided then. From now on we'll be: Lesbian, Gay, Bi, Trans, Other, Multi-Gendered, Whatever, Trailblazing and Future? Bit of a mouthful. Any objections if we just use initials again? No? OK, I'll go ahead and order the new sign.

It's here! So, what do you think?
